In Transportation

Albert Charles Fries, B.S., 1931

In Zoology

John Robert Buchheit, B.S., Hamline University, 1929
Clarence William Clancy, B.S., 1930
Lowell Fred Galbreath, B.Ed., Southern Illinois State Normal University, 1931
Donald John O'Donnell, B.S., 1931
Sigurd Ferdinand Olson, B.S., University of Wisconsin, 1920
Joe Marion Parker, A.B., 1930
John Yin Chieh Watt, A.B., State University of Iowa, 1931

Candidates for Professional Degrees in Engineering

The Degree of Master of Architecture

Charles Alexander Gunn, B.S., 1892

The Degree of Civil Engineer

Russell Alger Hall, B.C.E., University of Michigan, 1916; M.S., 1924
Frederic Theodore Mavis, B.S., M.S., 1922, 1926
Wayne Ransom Woolley, B.S., 1927
Leigh Francis Joseph Zerbee, B.S., 1911

The Degree of Electrical Engineer

Albert Jay Clarkson, B.S., 1916
Ralph Robert Richart, B.S., 1927

The Degree of Mechanical Engineer

Frank Butler Doyle, B.S., 1920; M.S., Cornell University, 1923
Harry John Klotz, B.S., 1912
Maurice Olchoff, B.S., 1923
Ching Pong Pei, B.S., Tangshan Engineering College, 1921; M.S., 1923

Candidates for the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy

In Agronomy

Henry Lloyd Buckardt, B.S., M.S., 1926, 1929. Effect of fall, winter and spring seeding on yield, certain plant characters, quality and germination of wheat varieties.

In Botany

Constantine John Alexopoulos, B.S., M.S., 1927, 1928. A comparative study of certain pycnidial fungi from Vitis.

Harold Ross McLarty, B.A., M.A., McMaster University, 1916, 1920. Perennial canker of apple trees.

In Chemistry

Charles Brunner Becker, S.B., S.M., University of Chicago, 1928, 1929. The stereochemical properties of 2, 2′–difluoro–6, 6′–dimethoxy–3, 3′–dicarboxy-diphenyl.

Alfred Theodore Blomquist, A.B., M.S., 1928, 1929. A study of conjugated unsaturated hydrocarbons.

Clyde Train Caldwell, B.S., Earlham College, 1922; M.S., 1923. Growth experiments with mixtures of amino acids.

Kenneth Edwin Corrigan, B.S., Knox College, 1928; M.S., 1930.
I. Diffraction studies with X-rays of long wave length.
II. New construction features of X-ray tubes.
III. The application of X-rays of high intensity to the study of unstable and changing structures.

Charles Harold Fisher, B.S., Roanoke College, 1928; M.S., 1929. Hindered alpha-halo ketones.

Dorothea Haas, B.A., Mt. Holyoke College, 1928. The transference numbers of some rare earth ions.

Vernal Richard Hardy, B.S., McKendree College, 1928; M.S., 1930. Chemical reactions in the solid state. Preparation of alkaline earth metal and magnesium perchlorates. Reaction between sulfur and ammonium perchlorate.

William Foley Henry, B.S., M.S., 1929, 1930. Physical properties of salt vapors.

Judson Harry Holloway, Jr., B.S., M.S., University of Denver, 1924, 1926. The synthesis of benzaldehyde from benzene and carbon monoxide under pressure.

William Christian Klingelhoefer, Jr., B.S., University of Pittsburgh, 1925. Atomic chlorine and its reactions.

Edward Merrill McMahon, B.S., Illinois Wesleyan University, 1927; M.S., 1929. A comparison of the methoxyl and fluorine groups in their influence on the restriction of rotation in ortho substituted diphenyls.

Ralph Edward Meints, B.S., M.S., Iowa State College, 1927, 1928. Observations on the rare earths: Preparation and properties of Lanthanum Amalgam Lanthanum metal and its structure.

Howard Everett Munro, B.S., Illinois Wesleyan University, 1928, M.S., 1929. Tetraphenyldiphenylethinylethane.

Paul Russell Shildneck, B.S., M.S., University of Nebraska, 1928, 1929. Stereochemistry of diphenylbenzenes. Preparation and properties of certain brominated dimesityl-hydroquinones and their derivatives.

Roger Wolcott Stoughton, B.S., M.S., Middlebury College, 1927, 1928. The stereoisomerism of 2, 2′, 6–trisubstituted diphenyls.

George Edgar Symons, B.S., M.S., 1928, 1930. The anaerobic bacterial hydrolysis of carbohydrates.

Eugene Hurlbut Woodruff, A.B., Grinnell College, 1926. The preparation and resolution of 2, 2′, 4, 4′–tetracarboxy–6, 6′–diphenyl–3, 3′–dipyridyl.

Han Ching Yuan, B.S., Tsing Hua University, 1929. I. Stereoisomerism of diphenyls. II. Salts of diiodomethane disulfonic acid. III. Synthesis of 2–mesityl–1, 4–naphthoquinone and its derivatives.

In Classics

Katharine Sybil Tubbs, A.B., Bates College, 1928; A.M., 1930. The Greek versions of Jerome's Life of Saint Paul of Thebes.

In Dairy Husbandry

Charles Andrew Brown, B.S., M.S., Purdue University, 1917, 1920. Recent adjustments to low dairy prices within the dairy industry.

Harold Kenneth Wilson, B.S., 1929; M.S., University of California, 1930. Factors affecting the marketability of fluid milk.

In Economics

David Miers Beights, A.B., University of Colorado, 1925; M.S., 1927. Financing American rubber manufacturing companies.

Daniel Borth, Jr., B.S., University of Kansas, 1927; M.S., 1928. Capitalization of public service corporations. (Its relation to the rate base, the rate of return and service).

Cecil Clayton Carpenter, B.S., University of Kentucky, 1926; M.S., 1927. Monetary theory in England during the bank restriction period, 1797-1821.

Robert Phillip Hackett, B.S., M.S., 1923, 1926. Consolidation in the drug industry.

Wilbert Eugene Karrenbrock, A.B., Central Wesleyan College, 1921; B.S., M.S., 1923, 1924. The administration of municipal funds with special reference to Illinois cities.

Ernest Gilmore Lewis, A.B., A.M., University of Texas, 1926, 1928. Some contributions of John Sherman to Public and Private Finance, 1855-1881.

Kenneth Dean Luney, A.B., Geneva College, 1924; A.M., 1928. Mr. Justice Brandeis and the problems of labor.

In Education

Max Dissette Engelhart, B.S., M.S., 1923, 1926. The problems and techniques of educational research.

In Engineering

Ralph Louis Scorah, B.S., M.S., Purdue University, 1924, 1925. The thermodynamics of detonation with application to mixtures of hydrogen and oxygen.

In English

Harold Holliday Watts, A.B., A.M., 1927, 1928. The intellectual and artistic development of Lord Lytton.

In Geology

John Archer Culbertson, A.B., Hanover College, 1921; M.S., University of Chicago, 1924. The paleontology and stratigraphy of the Pennsylvanian strata between Caseyville, Kentucky, and Vincennes, Indiana.

Oscar Emil Wagner, Jr., A.B., A.M., 1928, 1929. The paleontology and stratigraphy of the Kaibab limestone.

In German

Mimi Ida Jehle, B.E., University of Akron, 1928; A.M., 1929. Das deutsche Kunstmärchen von der Romantik zum Naturalismus. (The German Literary Fairy-tale from Romanticism to Naturalism.)

Emilie Ida Walz Kubitz, A.B., A.M., 1916, 1930. Die Auffassung der Liebe in poetischen Realismus. (The Conception of Love in Poetic Realism.)

John William Kurtz, A.B., Wartburg College, 1927; A.M., 1929. Studies in the staging of the German religious drama of the late Middle Ages.

Fritz Moore, A.B., University of Akron, 1927; A.M., 1930. The attitude of the older Romanticists towards Lessing.

Flora Emma Ross, A.B., James Millikin University, 1910; A.M., Columbia University, 1920. Goethe in France, with special reference to Barres, Bourget, and Gide.

In History

Marian Elizabeth Baker, A.B., A.M., 1928, 1929. English factional politics, 1596-1599.

Edward Victor Cardinal, A.B., St. Viator College, 1920; A.M., Catholic University of America, 1924. Cardinal Lorenzo Campeggio (1474-1539).

Clarence Arthur Clausen, A.B., St. Olaf College, 1923; A.M., 1929. Dr. Fridtjof Nansen's work as High Commissioner of the League of Nations.

Wade Dewood David, A.B., A.M., University of Minnesota, 1920, 1925. Turkey and the Powers, 1907-1909.

Leland Livingston Sage, A.B., Vanderbilt University, 1922; A.M., 1928. Lord Stratford de Redcliffe and the origins of the Crimean War.

In Mathematics

John Harvey Butchart, B.S., Eureka College, 1928; A.M., 1929. Helices in Euclidean n-space.

Miles C Hartley, A.B., A.M., B.S., 1923, 1924, 1926. Properties of algebraic, plane quintics which are invariant under finite collineation groups.

Daniel Tell Sigley, A.B., A.M., University of Kansas, 1927, 1928. Groups involving a small number of complete sets of conjugates.

In Physics

Harold Q Fuller, A.B., Wabash College, 1928; A.M., 1930. The effect of oxygen on the fluorescence and absorption spectra of iodine.

Wendell Hinkle Furry, A.B., DePauw University, 1928; A.M., 1930. Molecular energies: The lithium molecule.

Clarence Duane Hause, A.B., Cornell College, 1927; A.M., 1929. The band spectrum of potassium hydride.

Clarence Edward Ireland, A.B., M.S., 1926, 1928. Valence forces in beryllium hydride.

Ralph Emerson Nusbaum, A.B., DePauw University, 1926; M.S., 1929. The magnetic rotation spectra and heats of dissociation of Li_2, Na_2, and K_2.

In Political Science

Lucretia Little Ilsley, A.B., Mt. Holyoke College, 1928; A.M., 1929. The administration of mandates by the British dominions.

In Psychology

Richard Kenneth Compton, A.B., Kalamazoo College, 1926; A.M., University of Michigan, 1929. An experimental and analytical study of organic set.

John Bascom Wolfe, A.B., Emory and Henry College, 1925; A.M., University of Virginia, 1928. The effect of delayed reward upon learning in the white rat.

In Zoology

Willard Marion Gersbacher, B.Ed., Southern Illinois State Normal University, 1926; A.M., 1928. The development of stream bottom communities in central Illinois.

Daniel Irvin Rasmussen, B.S., Brigham Young University, 1928; M.S., 1930. Biotic communities of the Kaibab Plateau.

William Roy Jackson, B.S., 1932

Candidates for Professional Degrees in Engineering

The Degree of Master of Architecture

Warren William Day, B.S., M.S., 1910, 1932

The Degree of Ceramic Engineer

Frederic Schaefer Markert, B.S., 1924
Richard George Mills, B.S., 1927; M.S., Rutgers University, 1930

William Albert Oliver, B.S.E., University of Michigan, 1922; M.S., 1928
Harry Edward Schlenz, B.S., M.S., 1927, 1929

Earl Walston Atkison, B.S., 1922
Lester LeRoy Phillips, B.S., 1912

Candidates for the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy

In Agronomy

Orville Thomas Bonnett, B.S., M.S., Kansas State Agricultural College, 1918, 1927. Tillering in barley as influenced by certain plant characteristics.

Zaver Harkha Patel, B.S., M.S., University of Bombay, 1927, 1930; A.I.I.Sc., Bangalore, India, 1930. Cause of seed abortion in soybeans and other crop plants.

Russell Scott Stauffer, B.S., Pennsylvania State College, 1917; M.S., 1923. Influence of parent material on soil character in a humid temperate climate.

Moses Sing-Dung Swen, B.S., M.S., Purdue University, 1928, 1930. Factors affecting flower shedding in soybeans.

Cornelius Austin Van Doren, B.S., M.S., 1928, 1929. Bound water and electrical conductivity as measures of cold resistance in winter wheat.

David Cleveland Wimer, B.S., M.S., Pennsylvania State College, 1915, 1921. The composition of mature corn stover as affected by variety, soil type, and fertilizer treatment.

In Bacteriology

Francis Matthew Clark, B.S., M.S., 1923, 1926. The formation of hydrogen sulfide by thermophilic bacteria.

John B. Rehm, B.S., Allegheny College, 1929; M.S., 1931. The effect of aeration on microorganisms.

Elbert Hollis Ruyle, B.S., Shurtleff College, 1929; M.S., 1931. The microbiology of canned meat products.

Isaac Evan Wheaton, B.S., M.S., University of Maryland, 1925, 1927. The effect of salt on microorganisms.

In Botany

Clifton Childress Doak, B.S., North Texas State Teachers College, 1922; M.S., Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College, 1928. The long shoot and the dwarf shoot of pines.

Theodore Melrose Sperry, B.S., Butler University, 1929; M.S., 1931. Root-systems in Illinois prairie.

In Chemistry

Chin Chang, A.B., University of Michigan, 1930; A.M., 1931. Stereochemistry of dipyrryl and dipyrryl-benzenes.

John Roy Doty, B.S., Monmouth College, 1927. Are traces of aluminum necessary for normal nutrition?

Homer Russell Duffey, B.S., Shurtleff College, 1926, M.S., 1928. A study of the equilibrium between propylene, hydrogen sulfide, and iso-propyl mercaptan.

Fred Alexander Dykins, Ph.B., St. Louis College of Pharmacy, 1924; B.S., M.S., 1929, 1930. Preparation of a palatable sirup from Jerusalem artichokes.

William Henry Horne, B.S., New York University, 1929. I. The reaction between diethylamine and ethylene oxide. II. Some new local anesthetics: A. Para-aminobenzoates of dialkylaminoethoxy alcohols. B. Para-aminophenyl urethanes of dialkylamino-alcohols. III. The action of optically active nitrates on ketones.

Elmer Ely Jukkola, A.B., Yankton College, 1926. The preparation and properties of some of the rare earth metals.

Walter Klabunde, B.S., 1928. Magnetic moment of the iron atom.

Albert Ensign Knauf, B.S., A.M., Western Reserve University, 1928, 1929. The stereochemistry of diisoduryl disulfonic acid and certain N-phenyl triazoles.

Milford Rhodes Lehman, A.B., University of California, 1928; M.S., 1930. The polymerization of bromoheptyl- and bromooctyl-dimethylamines.

John Neil Mrgudich, B.S., M.S., University of Arizona, 1929, 1930. I. An X-ray diffraction study of high tension impregnated paper cables. II. An X-ray diffraction study of the effect of rachitis upon the structural characteristics of bone.

Harlan Willis Nelson, B.S., University of North Dakota, 1929; M.S., 1930. A study of the oxidation of pyritic sulfur in bituminous coal.

John Orion Page, B.S., University of Rochester, 1927; M.S., 1931. Studies on enzyme action.

Arthur Ward Saddington, B.S., M.S., University of Alberta, 1929, 1931. Temperature-solubility relations in liquid-vapour systems under pressure.

William Edward Sohl, B.S., Case School of Applied Science, 1928; M.S., 1931. The preparation and properties of compounds related to cuscohygrine.

June Chien-Yu Tsao, A.B., M.S., Cornell University, 1929, 1930. Rearrangement of polyines. Tetra-biphenyl-tertiary-butyl-ethinyl-ethane.

Milton Heins Wahl, A.B., Central Wesleyan College, 1928; A.M., University of Missouri, 1930. The formation of hydrogen peroxide in the water vapor discharge.

Charles Orville Werner, A.B., University of Montana, 1928; M.S., 1931. A study of the formation of molecular addition compounds by means of crystal diffraction data.

In Classics

Stephen William Paine, A.B., Wheaton College, 1930; A.M., 1931. Aspects of the appropriate name in Greek.

Donald Everett Strout, A.B., Bates College, 1930; A.M., 1931. The latent Greek element in the technical vocabulary of Donatus.

In Economics

Frank Herman Beach, A.B., M.S., 1916, 1931. The monetary theories of John Law.

Cyrus Stanley Corey, A.B., Colby College, 1928; A.M., 1931. The Supreme Court and state taxation of interstate commerce.

Paul Martin Green, A.B., Miami University, 1926; M.S., 1927. General Motors Corporation, a study in corporate consolidation and finance.

Leonard Royal Koser, B.S., State University of Iowa, 1930; M.S., 1931. Public control of the production by public utilities of electric power.

Shison Chinglin Lee, A.B., University of Nanking, 1926; M.S., 1930. Farm mortgage credit in relation to the transfer of farm land with special reference to Illinois, 1910-1932.

William Bruce Lockling, A.B., A.M., University of California, 1927, 1929. Recent developments in the theory of the foreign exchanges.

Robert Wallace Mayer, B.S., M.S., 1930, 1931. Trading on the equity by public utility operating companies.

Ranbir Singh, B.S., University of California, 1929; M.S., 1930. Rural cooperative banking systems for short term and intermediate credit in Canada, United States, and the Union of South Africa.

Ping-Nan Tsu, A.B., A.M., University of California, 1930, 1931. Economic surplus and its taxation.

In Education

Harry Louis Metter, B.S., M.S., 1924, 1925. The arithmetic curriculum since 1860.

Charles Wilson Sanford, B.S., M.S., 1929, 1930. A critical study of certain aspects of infant and common school education 1810-40.

Vivian Thomas Smith, A.B., Greenville College, 1916; A.M., 1929. The correspondence between occupations and major specializations of graduates of the University of Illinois of the class of 1923.

In Engineering

William R. Osgood, A.B., Harvard College, 1917; B.S., Massachusetts Institute of Technology, 1919; M.S., 1924. Column strength of tubes elastically restrained against rotation at the ends.

In English

Dorothy Burrows, A.B., A.M., 1927, 1928. The relation of Dryden's serious plays and dramatic criticism to contemporary French literature.

Frederic Daniel Lemke, A.B., A.M., University of Wisconsin, 1926, 1927. George Eliot and her predecessors in village literature.

In Entomology

Herbert Holdsworth Ross, B.S., University of British Columbia, 1927; M.S., 1929. The ancestry, wing venation, and classification of the primitive Hymenoptera.

In Geology

Chester Burns Claypool, A.B., DePauw University, 1924; A.M., 1929. The Wilcox of Central Texas.

Charles Rollin Lorain Oder, A.B., A.M., University of Virginia, 1928, 1929. The stratigraphy, structure, and paleontology of the zinc-bearing Knox dolomite, between Jefferson City and Bristol, Tennessee.

In German

Candidates for Degrees

The Graduate School

Candidates for the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy

In Agronomy

John Eldon Gieseking, B.S., M.S., 1926, 1927. Podzolic Features in Illinois Soils.

In Bacteriology

Viola Mae Michael, A.B., 1925. Microbiology of Merchantable Canned Corn.

In Botany

Lauretta Ewing Fox, B.S., Westminster College, 1931; M.S., 1932. The Effects of High Temperatures on Seeds.

Gladys Charlotte Galligar, A.B., James Millikin University, 1931; A.M., 1932. Growth Studies on Excised Root Tips.

In Chemistry

Sidney Henry Babcock, III, A.B., M.S., Vanderbilt University, 1930, 1931. I. The Alkaline Cleavage of Acylomethylpyridinium Compounds. II. The Rearrangement of 1-Phenyl-5-Benzoylcyclopentene Oxide.

Joseph Hendrickson Balthis, Jr., B.S., Randolph-Macon College, 1929; M.S., West Virginia University, 1931. Part A. The Stability of Chromous Ammines and the Preparation of Chromous and Chromic Ammines. Part B. The Reaction of Phenyl Alanine with Optically Active Chromic Compounds of the Luteo Type.

Frank Thomas Barr, B.S., M.S., Washington University, 1929, 1931. Equilibria in the Chemical System: Hydrogen Sulfide, Propylene, Iso-Propyl Mercaptan, and N-Propyl Mercaptan.

Benton Alexander Bull, B.S., Knox College, 1930; M.S., 1931. The Haloform Reaction. Hindered Methyl Ketonic Acids.

Alvin Ackerman Burton, B.S., Oregon State College, 1929; M.S., 1930. A Study of the Catalytic Oxidation of Acetaldehyde.

Shih Liang Chien, B.S., Tsing Hua University, 1931; M.S., 1932. I. Effect of Substituents on the Rate of Racemization of Optically Active Diphenyls: Preparation and Resolution of Five Substituted 2-Nitro-6-Carboxy-2′-Methoxydiphenyls. II. Stereoisomerism of Orthomono-substituted Diphenyls: Preparation and Properties of 2-Chloromercuri-3′-Carboxydiphenyl.

Vera Arrietta Conard, A.B., M.S., 1928, 1931. I. Preparation of Some Guanidine Derivatives. II. Preparation of Beta-Ketonic Esters. III. The Reaction between Indene and 2-Octyl Nitrate.

Arden Garrell Deem, B.S., 1931. Hydrocarbon Pyrolysis.

Ellsworth Knowlton Ellingboe, A.B., Lawrence College, 1930; A.M., 1932. I. The Coupling Action of the Grignard Reagent. II. The 1,2-Dibenzoylcyclobutanes and Related Compounds.

Donald Sherwood Frederick, A.B., Miami University, 1931; A.M., 1932. The Structure of the Polymeric Addition Products Resulting from the Reaction of Sulfur Dioxide and Olefins.

Harold Marion Ginsburg, A.B., A.M., Ohio State University, 1930, 1931. I. A Study of the Reactions of Chlorobenzoxazole. II. Reactions of Malonic Ester and Ethyl Malonic Ester with Acyl Chlorides.

Henrietta Snow Hayden, B.S., M.S., Syracuse University, 1921, 1925. A Critique of the Methods for Determining Formic Acid.

Donald Fletcher Holmes, A.B., Amherst College, 1931; M.S., 1932. I. The Use of 1-Menthoxyacetyl Chloride for the Resolution of Amino Acids. II. The Preparation and Resolution of 2,4-Dinitro-6-Carboxy-2′-Methoxydiphenyl.

Ching Chen Li, B.S., National Central University, 1929; M.S., University of Chicago, 1931. I. Effect of Temperature and Solvents on the Rate of Racemization of 2-Nitro-6-Carboxy-2′-Alkoxydiphenyl. II. Preparation and Resolution of 2,2′-Dimethoxy-5,5′-Dicarboxy-6,6′-Dimethyldiphenyl.

Linwood Asa Murray, Jr., A.B., Augustana College, 1929. The Deflection of Alkali Halide Molecules by Electric Fields.

Douglas Gillison Nicholson, B.S., M.S., 1930, 1931. Rate of Oxidation by Means of Conductometric Methods.

Oliver Cecil Simpson, B.S., 1930. A Molecular Ray Study of the Magnetic Moment of the Oxygen Molecule.

Charles Frank Woodward, A.B., Lawrence College; 1930, A.M., 1932. The Reversibility of the Friedel and Crafts Condensation.

In Economics

Paul Edgar Alyea, B.S., M.S., 1923, 1927. Theory of the Gold Standard.

Harvey Wilborn Huegy, B.S., M.S., 1924, 1929. An Economic Analysis of Instalment Credit.

George William Sanford, B.S., A.M., 1927, 1928. The Commercial Policy of Great Britain since the World War.

William Howard Taylor, B.S., M.S., 1931, 1932. Financial Readjustment of Utility Corporations since 1929.

In Education

Russell Taaffe Gregg, B.S., A.M., 1928, 1929. A Critical Study of Vocational Guidance.

Milton Edward Kraft, B.S., M.S., 1930, 1931. A Study of the Governmental Decrees Regulating the Preparation and Certification for Certain of the Learned Professions in Germany.

Dewey Bernard Stuit, B.S., M.S., 1931, 1932. Correlation Analysis as a Means of Studying Problems of Functional Relationship.

In Engineering

Paul Andersen, B.S., Royal Polytechnic Institute, 1924; M.S., 1932. Shrinkage and Flow of Cements, Mortars, and Concretes.

Nathan Mortimore Newmark, B.S., Rutgers University, 1930; M.S., 1932. Interaction between Rib and Superstructure in Concrete Arch Bridges.

Herman Julius Stoever, B.S., Purdue University, 1928; M.S., 1930. The Thermodynamic Properties of Ammonia-Water Solutions and Their Application to the Absorption Refrigeration Cycle.

In English

Margaret French, A.B., Middlebury College, 1911; A.B., Mt. Holyoke College, 1912; A.M., 1924. The English Essay of the Restoration (1660-1700).

Berte Leroy Kinkade, A.B., A.M., University of Missouri, 1922, 1924. The English Translations of Higden's Polychronicon.

Effie MacKinnon, A.B., A.M., Wellesley College, 1925, 1930. Studies in Fourteenth Century English Mysticism. Richard Rolle, Walter Hilton, Juliana of Norwich, The Cloud of Unknowing.

In Entomology

Carl Otto Mohr, A.B., University of Minnesota, 1926; A.M., 1928. A Study of the Succession, Relative Numbers, and Biologies of Bucoprophilous Insects.

In Geology

Martin Hewett Billings, A.B., University of Minnesota, 1929; M.S., University of Pittsburgh, 1931. The Nocona Oil Field, Montague County, Texas.

In History

Selig Adler, A.B., University of Buffalo, 1931; A.M., 1932. The Senatorial Career of George Franklin Edmunds, 1866-1891.

Frank Hardee Allen, A.B., DePauw University, 1930; A.M., 1931. Government Influence on News in the United States during the World War.

Monday Morning

June the tenth at nine-thirty o'clock

The New Gymnasium

Auld Lang Syne

Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to mind?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And days of auld lang syne?

For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne;
We'll take a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne.

Candidates for Degrees

The Graduate School

Candidates for the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy

In Agronomy

Robert Estes Fore, B.S., Iowa State College, 1929; M.S., 1931. Tillering and other characters influencing yield in an oat hybrid.

In Animal Husbandry

Wesley Patterson Garrigus, B.S., Connecticut Agricultural College, 1931; M.S., 1933. Some effects of plant species and stage of maturity on the forage consumption of grazing steers of various weights.

In Bacteriology

William Arthur Miller, B.S., 1929; M.S., University of Pennsylvania, 1931. A study of pathogenic yeasts.

In Botany

Orie Jacob Eigsti, A.B., Goshen College, 1931; A.M., 1933. A morphological and cytological investigation of certain members of the Resedaceae.

Charlotte Liebtag Grant, A.B., DePauw University, 1926; A.M., 1927. Plant structure as influenced by soil moisture.

Opal Cameron Hartline, B.S., McKendree College, 1925; M.S., 1932. The hydrogen-ion concentration of plants as affected by the environment.

In Chemistry

Warren Cotton Ashley, B.S., M.S., 1929, 1930. I. The action of sodium ethoxide on levo-ethyl alpha-phenylsulfonebutyrate. II. The reaction of optically active nitrates on active methylene compounds.

Otto Karl Behrens, A.B., DePauw University, 1932; A.M., 1933. Investigations on a hitherto unrecognized component of proteins.

William Frank Bradley, A.B., 1930. X-ray diffraction studies of some clay colloids.

John Ewart Clemens, A.B., 1930. A study of surface ionization.

Laddie Francis Dobry, B.S., 1930; M.S., Purdue University, 1932. The rôle of the liquid film in gas absorption; kinetics of reaction of two gases at a liquid interface.

John Clifford Eck, B.S., Montana State College, 1931; M.S., 1932. I. Compounds related to lysine. II. The chemistry of rubrene.

Carlin Frary Gibbs, B.S., Knox College, 1930; M.S., 1932. Reactions of halogenated amines.

William Edward Hanford, B.S., Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science, 1930; M.S., 1932. I. Effect of substituents on the rate of racemization of optically active diphenyls: preparation and resolution of five 4-substituted-2-methoxy-2′-nitro-6′-carboxydiphenyls. II. The constitution of vasicine.

Charles Norman McCarty, A.B., Albion College, 1931; M.S., 1933. Observations on the rare earths: The quantitative estimation of some of the rare earth ores by means of their arc spectra.

Richard Hugh McCoy, A.B., Earlham College, 1929; M.S., 1931. The concentration and properties of an unknown protein component.

Edwin Theodore Mertz, A.B., University of Montana, 1931; M.S., 1933. The metabolism of the five-carbon amino acids.

Curtis Erdmund Meyer, B.S., M.S., 1931, 1932. The chemistry and metabolism of certain protein components.

Charles Rudolph Naeser, B.S., University of Wisconsin, 1931; M.S., 1933. Observations on the rare earths: I. The atomic weight of gadolinium. II. Studies on the electrolytic reduction of ytterbium.

Lester Edward Schniepp, B.S., Illinois Wesleyan University, 1931; M.S., 1932. I. The reactions of δ-aminovaleric acid derivatives. II. Dibiphenylene-di-P-alkylphenyl ethanes.

Richard Seyfarth Schreiber, A.B., Wabash College, 1931. The preparation and properties of substituted sulfonamides.

John Bickford Shields, B.S., University of Nevada, 1929. The vapor density of potassium chloride.

Max Lang Spealman, B.S., University of California, 1929. Atomic gas reactions: The recombination of atomic hydrogen in the presence of hydrogen chloride.

Wilber Otis Teeters, B.S., University of Iowa, 1930; M.S., 1933. I. The chemistry of wool. II. Condensation reactions of cyclic ketones.

Jack Theo Thurston, B.S., University of Nevada, 1931; M.S., 1933. The reactions of the salts and derivatives of secondary nitro compounds.

Arthur M. Van Arendonk, A.B., Hope College, 1930. I. The stereochemistry of 2,2′,6,6′-tetra-substituted diphenyls. II. The preparation and properties of certain oxonium compounds of branched chain carbinols. III. The stereochemistry of cyclohexane derivatives. IV. Addendum.

Donald Haven West, A.B., Carroll College, 1931; A.M., 1932. Observations on the rare earths: The preparation and study of some of the rare earth metal amalgams.

Madelyn Womack, B.S., Texas State College for Women, 1931; M.S., 1933. New indispensable amino acids.

In Classics

Alfreda Kathryn Stallman, A.B., North Central College, 1932; A.M., 1933. Friedrich Nietzsche as an interpreter of classical culture. Part I. The schoolboy and university student.

In Economics

Thor William Bruce, A.B., Lawrence College, 1923; A.M., 1931. Community industrial financing plans.

William Edward Folz, B.S., Evansville College, 1927; M.S., 1933. The financial crisis of 1819: A study in a post-war economic readjustment.

Wayne Linton McMillen, B.S., M.S., 1932, 1933. The air express service in the United States.

Merten Joseph Mandeville, B.S., M.S., 1921, 1922. The American merchant marine problem: Its development from 1920 to 1932.

John Junior Thornborrow, B.S., M.S., 1932, 1933. A national policy for electrical communications for the United States (with special reference to competition and monopoly).

Paul Marion Van Arsdell, B.S., M.S., 1927, 1929. Development of the concept of private business borrowing from the sixth century B.C. to the eighteenth century A.D.

In Education

Donald Leroy Quinsey, B.S., M.S., 1924, 1932. The educational theory of American courts.

In Engineering

Cloyde Moffett Smith, B.S., M.S., E.M., 1920, 1928, 1934. The resistance of mine timbers to the flow of air, as determined by models.

Max Suter, Diplom Ingenieur, Federal Polytechnic School (Switzerland), 1913; M.S., 1933. A critical analysis of the water hammer theory.

David Edgar Wiegand, B.S., M.S., 1931, 1932. A study of magnetic recording.

In English

James Paul Brawner, A.B., A.M., Washington and Lee University, 1924, 1925. The Warres of Cyrus, a tragedy, edited with an introduction and notes.

Jesse W. Harris, B.S., A.M., 1927, 1928. The life and works of John Bale (1495-1563).

In German

Gerrit Hermann Rudolph Memming, A.B., A.M., 1932, 1933. Niederdeutsche "Vörloopvertellsels," mit besonderer Rücksicht auf Ostfriesland.

In History

Sydney Nettleton Fisher, A.B., A.M., Oberlin College, 1928, 1932. Sultan Bayezit II and the foreign relations of Turkey.

In Mathematics

John Wesley Cell, A.B., A.M., 1928, 1929. Second order linear differential equations invariant with respect to linear fractional substitution groups of finite order.

James Avas Cooley, A.B., A.M., Indiana University, 1928, 1929. Certain symmetric surfaces and curves invariant in DeJonquieres transformations.

Gerald Boone Huff, A.B., A.M., Southern Methodist University, 1929, 1930. Discontinuous groups associated with the Cremona groups.

Clarence George Schilling, A.B., A.M., 1926, 1931. Some geometric applications of algebraic correspondences.

In Physics

Richard Kaufman Cook, B.S., M.S., 1931, 1932. Bounds on characteristic energies of atomic systems.

Richard James Duffin, B.S., 1932. Galvanomagnetic and thermomagnetic phenomena.

Tully Franklin Watson, A.B., M.S., University of Oklahoma, 1928, 1930. Band spectra of some diatomic oxides.

In Political Science

Valentine Jobst, III, A.B., A.M., 1926, 1931. Some questions of treaty law.

In Psychology

Sarah Catherine Ferrall, A.B., A.M., 1929, 1930. The absolute judgment of temporal intervals.

Glen Finch, A.B., DePauw University, 1930; A.M., 1931. The effect of protracted exposure to intense tonal stimuli on auditory acuity in dogs.

In Romance Languages

Donald Fowler Brown, A.B., Wheaton College, 1932; A.M., 1933. The influence of Emile Zola on the novelistic and critical works of Emilia Pardo Bazan.

Auld Lang Syne

Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to mind?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And days of auld lang syne?

For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne;
We'll take a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne.

Candidates for Degrees

The Graduate School

The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy

In Bacteriology

Sunshine E. Park, A.B., M.S., 1925, 1931. Studies on thermophilic bacteria.

In Botany

Henry Clyde Eyster, A.B., Bucknell University, 1932; A.M., 1934. The cause of decreased vitality of seeds soaked in water.

Alan Stanley Peirce, A.B., M.S., 1932, 1933. Anatomical interrelationships of the Taxodiaceae and Cupressaceae.

In Chemistry

Lee Linsley Alexander, B.S., Illinois Wesleyan University, 1932; A.M., 1933. The reversible Friedel and Crafts reaction.

Milo Everett Bixler, A.B., Iowa State Teachers College, 1930; M.S., Iowa State College, 1933. Molecular ray studies on alkali halides in electric fields.

Wesley Stuart Coe, B.S., Iowa Wesleyan College, 1933. I. X-ray tube for high intensity radiation. II. Photochemical reduction with X-rays and effects of addition agents.

Fred Elmer Condo, B.S., M.S., 1931, 1933. I. Derivatives of tetrahydrodiphenylene oxide. II. Addition of thioglycolic acid to nitriles.

Thomas Gaunt Cooke, B.S., 1925. Electrolytic conductance in solid calcium fluoride.

Scheuring Session Fierke, B.Ed., Southern Illinois State Normal University, 1932; M.S., 1933. The metabolism of creatine and the leucines.

John Lukins Gring, B.S., M.S., 1932, 1933. Spectro-analytical contributions.

James Kenneth Gunther, B.S., Knox College, 1932; M.S., Cornell University, 1933. The quantitative nitrogen requirements of the animal organism.

Evelyn Margaret Hancock, A.B., Duke University, 1930; A.M., 1933. Biochemical investigations involving certain essential amino acids.

James Owen Hendricks, A.B., Wabash College, 1931. The ionization of salt molecules on hot surfaces. Potassium halides on tungsten.

Gordon Dale Hiatt, A.B., DePauw University, 1933; A.M., 1934. Further experiments on the essential amino acids.

Chi-Yi Hsing, B.S., Catholic University of Peking, 1933; M.S., Catholic University of America, 1934. I. Relative rates of racemization of substituted diamides of 2,2′-dimethoxy-6,6′-dicarboxydiphenyl. II. Cyclic derivatives of 9,10-phenanthrenequinone.

Hugh Henry Hully, A.B., Simpson College, 1932; A.M., 1933. Dihydro-1,4-pyrans.

Robert Johnson, B.S., M.S., 1930, 1934. I. The action of hypoiodite on hindered ketones. II. The principle of vinylogy in the ketone series.

Harold Garrett Kolloff, A.B., Kalamazoo College, 1933. The synthesis of substituted hydrophenanthrenes.

Marlin Templeton Leffler, A.B., Miami University, 1932; A.M., 1933. I. Aminophenyl oxazolines and their physiological action. II. The preparation and study of deuterium compounds of the type: R_1R_2CHD.

Rupert Clarke Morris, B.S., Mississippi State College, 1932. I. Some new barbituric acids. II. The structure of the oxidation products of vasicine. III. Some new reactions of gossypol.

Dexter Harold Reynolds, A.B., University of Missouri, 1932; M.S., University of Arizona, 1933. The extension of improved X-ray diffraction technique to some complex industrial materials.

John A. Schaad, B.S., 1931. X-Ray diffraction studies of collagen and gelatin.

Leonard R. Scribner, A.B., A.M., Albion College, 1932, 1933. Observations of the rare earths: The quantitative estimation of some of the rare earth ores by means of their arc spectra.

Albert F. Smith, B.S., Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College, 1932. Studies on the structure of chitin.

Meredith Pleasant Sparks, A.B., A.M., University of Indiana, 1927, 1928. Substituted 2-phenyloxazoles and 2-phenyloxazolines.

In Classics

Lloyd William Daly, A.B., Knox College, 1932; A.M., 1933. The Altercatio Hadriani et Epicteti and the question-and-answer dialogue.

Levi Robert Lind, A.B., A.M., 1929, 1932. The Vita Sancti Malchi of Reginald of Canterbury. A critical edition with introduction, apparatus criticus, notes, and indices.

Robert Conrad Stone, A.B., Wheaton College, 1933; A.M., 1934. The language of Codex Bezae D.

In Dairy Husbandry

Orlando Ford Garrett, B.S., M.S., 1926, 1930. A quantitative study of the calcium, magnesium, potassium, sodium, phosphorus, and chlorine in the milks of two purebred dairy cows.

In Economics

Harry Kenneth Allen, B.S., M.S., 1920, 1932. Efficiency and economy in local government—with particular reference to Illinois.

In Education

Raymond Henry Fisher, A.B., A.M., Stanford University, 1929, 1930. Charles W. Eliot's views on college education in the light of present trends.

In Engineering

The Graduate School

The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy

In Bacteriology

Marion Winifred Hood, A.B., Carroll College, 1918; A.M., University of Wisconsin, 1928. The relation between the oral and gastric bacterial flora.

In Medicine

Ford Kimmel Hick, M.D., M.S., 1931, 1933. Criteria of oxygen want with especial reference to neurocirculatory asthenia.

In Pathology

Perry Julius Melnick, B.S., M.S., M.D., 1927, 1929, 1930. The time factor in the irradiation of malignant tumors.

The Degree of Master of Arts

In Psychology

Robert Crane Kammerer, A.B., 1933

The Degree of Master of Science

In Bacteriology

Marie Anna Hagele, B.S., Lewis Institute, 1931
George Maurice Kalmanson, B.S., College of the City of New York, 1934

In Dental Pathology and Therapeutics

Edgar Herman Kramp, B.S., D.D.S., 1929, 1931

In Medicine

Samuel Liebman, B.S., 1934

In Neuropsychiatry

Chester Wade, B.S., 1934

In Orthodontia

Beulah Grattan Nelson, A.B., Northwestern University, 1921; D.D.S., 1930

In Pathology

Ben William Lichtenstein, B.S., M.D., 1930, 1932
Everett Jacob Olenick, B.S., 1934

In Pharmacology

Jacob Francis Hahn, B.S., 1930

In Physiology

Lester Frands Mikkel Storm, B.S., Northwestern University, 1933

Degrees Conferred Since the Last Commencement

Conferred in August and October, 1935, and in February, 1936

The Graduate School

The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy

Conferred in February, 1936

In Bacteriology

Frank Thorp, Jr., D.V.M., Iowa State College, 1926; M.S., Virginia Polytechnic Institute, 1927. A bacteriological study of the aerobic flora occurring in pneumonic lungs of swine.

In Chemistry

Samuel H. Eppstein, A.B., University of Chicago, 1929. The parenteral utilization of amino acids.

Eugene Dodson Farley, A.B., University of Wisconsin, 1931; M.S., 1933. Rearrangements of the polyines: a study of the rearrangement product of tetraphenyl-ditertiarybutylethinyl-ethane.

Jared Hewes Ford, A.B., Oberlin College, 1931; A.M., 1932. Allene-acetylene rearrangements in compounds related to diphenyldi-tertiary-butylditertiary-butylethinylethane.

Bernard Samuel Friedman, A.B., 1930. I. 2-Aminophenyl-thiazoles. II. New reactions of gossypol.

Kenneth Stanley Kemmerer, B.S., M.S., Beloit College, 1930, 1932. The metabolism of certain sulfur compounds related to cystine and methionine.

William Joseph Sparks, A.B., A.M., University of Indiana, 1926, 1929. Rearrangements of the polyines: a study of the rearrangement of tritertiary-butylethynl-methyl derivatives.

Robert Rhorer Sterrett, B.S., Purdue University, 1931; M.S., St. Louis University, 1932. The application of the x-ray diffraction technique to some problems of lubrication.

In Classics

Charles Clare Hower, A.B., North Central College, 1927; A.M., 1928. Studies on the so-called Accursiana Recension of the life and fables of Aesop.

Auld Lang Syne

Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to mind?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And days of auld lang syne?

For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne;
We'll take a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne.

Candidates for Degrees

The Graduate School

The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy

In Animal Husbandry

Tom Sherman Hamilton, B.S., M.S., 1917, 1922. The thermogenic effect and the net energy content of rations balanced and unbalanced with respect to protein.

In Botany

Katherine Kinsel, A.B., A.M., University of California, Los Angeles, 1931, 1934. Physiological studies on morphologically related species of fungi.

James Morton Schopf, A.B., University of Wyoming, 1930; M.S., 1932. The embryology of Larix.

In Chemistry

Richard Thomas Arnold, B.Ed., Southern Illinois State Normal University, 1934; M.S., 1935. I. A new synthesis of mixed benzoins. II. The synthesis of polyvinylene chains.

Roderick Charles Cary, A.B., 1931. Optically active quaternary ammonium salts.

James Martin Cross, B.S., M.S., 1931, 1932. I. The synthesis and local anaesthetic action of substituted urethans. II. Synthesis of some disulfones.

Rudolph Everett Damschroder, A.B., Hiram College, 1932; M.S., Syracuse University, 1934. I. Urethans of 8-amino quinoline. II. Derivatives of coumaranone.

Lewis Royal Drake, B.S., M.S., Northwestern University, 1933, 1935. The preparation of phosphonic acids and their alkyl esters.

William Alfred Fessler, B.S., University of Tulsa, 1934; M.S., 1935. Studies on nitro compounds.

Henry Dorroh Foster, B.S., University of South Carolina, 1933; M.S., 1934. Catalytic oxidation in the vapor phase.

Elbert Egidius Gruber, B.S., Xavier University, 1932; M.S., 1934. I. The cleavage of N-phenylbenzimidylpyridinium chlorides with organic bases. II. The synthesis of some hydrogenated phenanthrenes.

William Ernest Holland, A.B., Indiana University, 1932; M.S., Brown University, 1933. I. The condensation of acetomesitylene with ethyl oxalate. II. Hindered arylglyoxals.

Kenneth Karl Kearby, B.S., M.S., 1932, 1933. A study of the effect of the surface of a catalyst on dehydrations in the vapor phase.

Robert William Krebs, B.S., M.S., 1933, 1935. Individual gas absorption coefficients in wetted wall towers.

Margaret Lawrenz, B.S., Alabama Polytechnic Institute, 1931; M.S., Emory University, 1932. Observations on the rare earths: Further studies in the quantitative estimation of the rare earths by means of their arc spectra.

Frank Clifton McGrew, B.S., M.S., University of Nebraska, 1934, 1935. I. The study of restricted rotation between a cyclic and an acyclic radical. II. The preparation and study of deuterium compounds of the type: $R_1R_2CX_HX_D$.

Lillian Hoagland Meyer, A.B., M.S., Washington University, 1930, 1931. The nutritive value of synthetic amino acids.

Richard Froman Miller, A.B., 1933. I. The structure of gossypol. II. Contributions to the multiplanar isomerism of cyclohexanes.

Glenn Albert Nesty, A.B., DePauw University, 1934. I. Dialkylhexahydronaphthalenones from cyclohexenyldialkylvinylacetylenes. II. Studies in the sterol series.

Arthur John Paik, B.S., 1933; M.S., Pennsylvania State College, 1934. An equilibrium study of the system: ethylene, water, and ethyl alcohol.

Paul Swithin Pinkney, B.S., University of Wisconsin, 1934. Polynuclear compounds from acetylenic glycols.

William Ernest Ross, B.S., 1932. I. The action of formaldehyde on hindered aryl methyl ketones. II. The action of methyl Grignard reagents on 2,4,6-trichlorobenzoyl chloride.

Max Ferdinand Roy, A.B., A.M., Rice Institute, 1931, 1933. The dissociation of hexaarylethanes. The effect of weight.

Ralph Louis Edwin Seifert, A.B., Evansville College, 1934; A.M., 1935. I. A reinvestigation of the electron emission from tungsten. II. An investigation of the effect of iodine upon a tungsten surface.

Janice Minerva Smith, A.B., M.S., 1930, 1932. The distribution of threonine and its physiological replacement by other compounds.

Clarence Albert Stiegman, B.S., M.S., 1932, 1934. The stereochemistry of complex inorganic compounds. I. Structure of platinous-olefine compounds. II. Stereochemistry of cobaltic-ethylendiamine and cobaltic-propylenediamine compounds.

Charles William Joseph Wende, A.B., Central College, 1934. The mechanism of formation of water and hydrogen peroxide.

Harold Dadford West, A.B., M.S., 1925, 1930. The chemistry and nutritive value of essential amino acids.

Enno Wolthuis, A.B., Calvin, 1932; M.S., University of Michigan, 1933. I. Some studies in electron diffraction. II. X-ray studies of crystalline rubber.

In Dairy Husbandry

Stewart Laurence Tuckey, B.S., M.S., 1928, 1930. A chemical and x-ray diffraction analysis of changes occurring in casein with special reference to those which take place in Cheddar cheese.

In Economics

Allen Thomas Bonnell, A.B., A.M., Oberlin College, 1933, 1934. German control over international economic relations, 1930-1937.

Leahmae Brown, A.B., University of Kansas, 1933; A.M., Tufts College, 1935. The development of national policy with respect to water resources.

Robert W. Field, B.S., University of Colorado, 1934; M.S., 1935. Investment standards for public utility securities.

Charles Milton Whitlow, B.S., University of North Dakota, 1928; M.S., New York University, 1929. Prices and returns of securities in France 1914-1930.

John Elliot Wills, B.S., M.S., 1925, 1932. Land use problems in selected areas of central Illinois.

In Education

Eugene Holt Wilson, A.B., Arkansas State Teachers College, 1930; B.S.(Lib.), A.M., 1932, 1933. Pre-professional background of students in a library school.

In English

Olive Pauline Henneberger, A.B., Trinity College, 1928; A.M., Radcliffe College, 1930. Proximate sources for the Italianate elements in Shakespeare.

Carolyn Washburn, A.B., Mount Holyoke College, 1927; A.M., Columbia University, 1928. The history, from 1832 to 1860, of British criticism of narrative prose fiction.

In Entomology

Barnard de Witt Burks, A.B., A.M., 1933, 1934. A monographic revision of the tribe Chalcidini in America north of Mexico (Hymenoptera, Chalcididae).

In Geology

George Vincent Cohee, B.S., M.S., 1931, 1932. Ocean bottom sediments off the mid-Atlantic coast.

In German

Christian Otto Arndt, B.D., Concordia Seminary, 1927; A.M., Washington University, 1928; M.S., 1932. The changing appreciation of the writings of Adalbert Stifter.

Robert Theodore Ittner, A.B., 1931. The Christian legend in German literature since Romanticism.

Charles Harry Stubing, A.B., Wesleyan University, 1931; A.M., Columbia University, 1933. The relations of the German realists to literary history and criticism in the field of prose fiction.

In History

Robert Gehlman Bone, A.B., Wooster College, 1928; A.M., 1932. Roman persecution of the non-Christian religions before 200 A.D.

In Mathematics

Frank Cook Gentry, A.B., A.M., University of Oklahoma, 1929, 1930. Groups of Cremona transformations in space of ternary type.

Virginia Modesitt, A.B., Mount Holyoke College, 1931; A.M., 1932. Some singular properties of conformal transformations between Riemannian spaces.

Sallie Elizabeth Pence, A.B., A.M., University of Kentucky, 1914, 1928. The configuration of the double points of cubics of a pencil.

Robert McDowell Thrall, A.B., Illinois College, 1935; A.M., 1935. Metabelian groups and trilinear forms.

Felix Perry Welch, B.S., Mississippi State College, 1929; A.M., University of Texas, 1932. Singular non-linear first order differential equations containing a parameter.

In Physics

Robert Obed Burns, B.S., Knox College, 1931; M.S., 1933. Geiger counter characteristics.

Cecil Gordon Dunn, A.B., University of Montana, 1931; M.S., 1933. The effect upon physical properties of small lattice distortions.

George Kenneth Green, B.S., M.S., 1933, 1935. A cyclotron and its application to the study of gamma-rays.

George Rankin Irwin, A.B., Knox College, 1930; A.M., 1933. Mass ratio of the lithium isotopes from the band spectrum of LI_2.

Howard Sparling Pattin, A.B., Marietta College, 1931; A.M., 1933. The extreme ultra-violet spectra of scandium VI, scandium VII, and other elements isoelectronic with phosphorus I and sulphur I.

Merrill Paul Rassweiler, B.S., Beloit College, 1930; M.S., 1932. The absorption spectrum of caesium hydride.

Harvey Albert Schultz, A.B., North Central College, 1933; A.M., 1935. The spectrum of diatomic antimony.

William Earl Shoupp, A.B., Miami University, 1931; A.M., 1933. The neutron-proton interaction as manifested in the scattering of neutrons by protons.

In Political Science

Hung Ti Chu, A.B., University of Wisconsin, 1932; A.M., University of Missouri, 1933. China and the League of Nations.

Charles Nolan Fortenberry, A.B., A.M., University of Mississippi, 1931. Legal regulation of political party organization in the United States.
Jack Fein Isakoff, A.B., Western Reserve University, 1931; A.M., Ohio State University, 1932. The Public Works Administration.
Robert Wallace Rafuse, A.B., Colgate University, 1934; A.M., 1935. The rule of non-extradition of nationals.

In Romance Languages

The Graduate School

The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy

In Bacteriology

Nell Hirschberg, A.B., Smith College, 1928; A.M., University of Colorado, 1933. The effect of human tissue juices on tubercle bacilli.

Herbert Eli McDaniels, B.S., University of Chicago, 1925; M.S., 1932. Appraisal of public health work in Oak Park, Illinois.

In Physiological Chemistry

Frances Agnes Briggs, B.S., 1926; M.S., Tulane University, 1928. The effect of the intravenous injection of crystallized egg albumin on the excretion of the antigin and the blood proteins in the urine.

Helen Woodward Wade, B.S., Washington University, 1926; M.S., Iowa State College, 1929. Creatine and creatinine excretion in myotonia congenita.

The Degree of Master of Science

In Bacteriology

Frances Marie Jacobson, B.S., 1933
Myron Jame Levin, B.S., 1935
Dorothy Kathryn O'Connor, A.B., B.S., 1933, 1935
Edward Ernest Vicher, B.S., 1935

In Medicine

Thrift Gene Hanks, B.S., 1936

In Obstetrics and Gynecology

George Henry Rezek, A.B., M.D., 1928, 1933

In Pathology

Louis Olsman, B.S., 1935

In Physiological Chemistry

Norton Wieder Holder, A.B., Western Reserve University, 1935

Degrees Conferred Since the Last Commencement

Conferred in August and October, 1936, and in February, 1937

The Graduate School

The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy

Conferred in February, 1937

In Agronomy

Lloyd Vincent Sherwood, B.S., M.S., 1931, 1932. A physiological study of cold tolerance in corn.

In Animal Husbandry

John Henry Quisenberry, B.S., Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College, 1931; M.S., 1933. Genetic studies of skeletal dimensions and their relation to body weight and egg production in the domestic fowl (Gallus domesticus).

In Bacteriology

Norman Callender Laffer, B.S., Allegheny College, 1929; M.S., University of Maine, 1932. A study of lactose-fermenting yeasts.

In Botany

Charles La Motte, A.B., A.M., University of Texas, 1929. Morphology and orientation of embryo of isoetes.

In Chemistry

Merton Monroe Beckwith, B.S., M.S., 1933, 1934. X-ray diffraction studies of distortion.

James Howard Brown, A.B., Wabash College, 1932; M.S., Vanderbilt University, 1933. I. The influence of the weight of para and meta substituted alkyl groups on the dissociation of hexaarylethanes. II. The activation of a platinum and oxide-platinum black catalyst by halogen acid.

Jerome George Burtle, B.S., Knox College, 1932. Oxygen demand studies.

Raymond Warner Campbell, A.B., Knox College, 1929; A.M., Harvard University, 1932. An investigation of reactions involving hydroxyl molecules, oxygen, and hydrogen.

Henry Benedict Fisher, Jr., B.S., Antioch College, 1932. Studies on bound water.

Eugene Harvey Huffman, A.B., University of Colorado, 1927; M.S., University of Washington, 1929. The stereochemistry of complex inorganic compounds: I. Studies of resolution. II. Studies on the Walden inversion.

Thurston Eric Larson, B.S., 1932. Colloidal properties of hydrous alumina.

Paul Warren Leppla, B.S., M.S., 1932, 1934. Structure and orientation in films built up from monomolecular layers.

Edward Arthur Parker, B.S., M.S., 1930, 1932. Further x-ray study of cellulose and some of its derivatives.

Leone Anne Ruberg, A.B., Lawrence College, 1930; A.M., 1934. I. The structure of cevine. II. The reaction between ethylene oxide and secondary amines. Some new local anesthetics.

Laurence Leland Ryden, A.B., Central College, 1931; A.M., University of Missouri, 1933. Polysulfones from olefins and acetylenes.

John Henry Shenk, B.S., M.S., Kansas State College of Agriculture and Applied Sciences, 1929, 1931. An x-ray diffraction study of proteins.

Henry Russell Todd, A.B., Illinois College, 1932; M.S., 1933. A study of the acid intermediates in the methane fermentation.

Wilson Vincent Upton, B.S., Monmouth College, 1932; M.S., 1933. Removal of anions from water solutions.

Harry Herschel Weinstock, Jr., B.Chem., Cornell University, 1933; M.S., 1934. Mesityl phenyl diketone and its reduction products.

In Classics

Paul Shaner Dunkin, A.B., DePauw University, 1929; A.M., 1931. Studies in the social outlook of the middle and new comedy.

Chauncey Edgar Finch, A.B., A.M., 1930, 1932. The Urbana manuscript of Apuleius.

Leslie Dent Johnston, A.B., A.M., Indiana University, 1929, 1931. Classical origins of Christmas customs.

In Economics

James Elwood Amos, A.B., Colorado College, 1923; A.M., 1928. The economics of corporate saving.

Merrill Cochrane Gay, A.B., Oberlin College, 1929; A.M., University of Michigan, 1931. The trade agreements program of the United States.

In Engineering

Wan Li Huang, B.S.C.E., Tangshan Engineering College, 1932; M.C.E., Cornell University, 1935. An analysis of the rainfall-runoff correlation.

William Ray Morgan, B.S., M.S., 1920, 1932. The conditions governing the diffusion of liquids in ceramic bodies.

In English

Eric Verner Sandin, B.S., Wesleyan University, 1920; A.M., Columbia University, 1926. Charles Kingsley as novelist.

In Geology

Louis Cordell McCabe, B.S., M.S., 1931, 1933. Some physical evidences of rank development exhibited by vitrain.

In German

Auld Lang Syne

Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to mind?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And days of auld lang syne?

For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne;
We'll take a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne.

Candidates for Degrees

The Graduate School

The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy

In Agronomy

Leonard Freeman Williams, B.S., M.S., 1932, 1935. The inheritance of seed coat color in the soybean.

In Animal Husbandry

Harold Martin Scott, B.S., Oregon State College, 1924; M.S., Kansas State College, 1927. The physiology of egg size in the domestic fowl.

In Botany

Stephen Diachun, B.S., Rhode Island State College, 1934; M.S., 1935. Studies on the Penicillium seedling blight of corn.

Virginia Beatrice Gangstad, A.B., A.M., 1934, 1935. Contributions to the morphology of the Passifloraceae.

John Henry Hanley, B.S., University of Michigan, 1927; M.S., 1933. The effect of temperature on the forcing of bulbs.

Hubert Andrew Harris, A.B., Southeastern Teachers College, 1930; M.S., 1932. Transpirational and toxic effects induced by Bacillus tracheiphilus, Aplanobacter Stewarti, and Verticillium alboatrum.

In Chemistry

George Bosworth Brown, B.S., Illinois Wesleyan University, 1934; M.S., 1936. Reactions of salts of nitro compounds.

Darrel J. Butterbaugh, B.S., University of Nebraska, 1935. I. Derivatives of octahydrophenanthrene. II. Degradations of apogossypol. III. The chemistry of binaphthyl.

John Wayne Cole, A.B., DePauw University, 1935; A.M., 1936. I. The cyanoester ring closure. II. The structure of 3-benzoyl-2-phenylcyclopentanone.

Clarence England Denoon, Jr., B.S., M.S., University of Richmond, 1934, 1935. The structure and reactions of polyvinyl alcohol.

George Edward Eilerman, B.S., Xavier University, 1931. I. Synthetic approach to the preparation of nuclei occurring in the sex hormones. II. Rearrangement of the allyl ether of benzaldoxime.

Glenn Charles Finger, B.S., M.S., 1927, 1928. The steric influences of the methoxyl, carboxyl, methyl, and nitro groups in substituted diphenyls.

Charles LeRoy Fleming, Jr., A.B., Dartmouth College, 1935; A.M., 1936. A new synthesis of furans.

Charles Albert Getz, B.S., M.S., 1932, 1934. New methods in quantitative analysis using oxidation-reduction reactions.

Frank John Glavis, A.B., Dartmouth College, 1935. Polysulfones from sulfur dioxide and olefins.

Robert Michael Joyce, Jr., B.S., M.S., University of Nebraska, 1935, 1936. I. Stereochemistry of molecules containing more than one point of restricted rotation. II. Enolization of aldehydes.

Louis Schröer Keyser, B.S., M.S., University of Idaho, 1934, 1935. I. Synthesis of beta′-diethylaminoethyl beta-aminocrotonate. II. Derivatives of phthalide.

Edward Crane Kirkpatrick, A.B., Princeton University, 1935. I. The structure of gossypol. II. Reactions of lactones.

William Emil Lundquist, B.Chem., University of Minnesota, 1934; M.S., 1936. 1,4-biradicals.

James Peyton McReynolds, A.B., James Millikin University, 1929. Stereochemical configurations in inorganic complex compounds.

Bernard Charles Marklein, B.S., M.S., 1934, 1935. Detection of the newer industrial elements.

Eldon Emerson Rice, A.B., DePauw University, 1934; M.S., 1936. The biological significance of certain amino acids.

Harry Kennon Sutherland, B.S., University of Wisconsin, 1935. The preparation and absorption spectra of some camphane derivatives.

Louise Pickens Tanner, B.S., 1921; M.S., Iowa State College, 1927. A study of the nature and properties of different types of corn starch.

John Hamilton Van Campen, B.Chem., Cornell University, 1935; M.S., 1936. Hindered acid chlorides in the Grignard synthesis.

In Economics

Lloyd Edward Fitzgerald, B.Ed., Superior State Teachers College, 1927; A.M., University of Iowa, 1930. Some aspects of railway finance since 1929.

Philip Graydon Hudson, B.S., M.S., University of Arizona, 1930, 1933. The use of statistical methods to measure the physical volume of production in the United States.

Gustav Wesley Kuhlman, B.S., South Dakota State College, 1925; M.S., 1927. Some economic aspects of small-scale farming in Oregon with special reference to part-time farming in the Willamette Valley region.

Cecil Adolph Moyer, B.S., Miami University, 1931; M.S., 1932. Economic aspects of fixed capital obsolescence.

John Bishop Parrish, A.B., 1934. Some aspects of the relationship between real wages and the supply of labor.

Melvin James Segal, A.B., Amherst College, 1932; A.M., 1935. The Norris-LaGuardia act and the courts.

Ervin Kenneth Zingler, A.B., Lawrence College, 1935; A.M., 1936. Theoretical aspects of production.

In Engineering

Jacob Karol, B.S., M.S., 1929, 1930. A partial influence line procedure for suspension bridge analysis by the deflection theory.

Willard Arthur Laning, Jr., B.S., Bucknell University, 1927; M.S., 1931. Oscillations in corona discharges in rarefied gases.

In English

Leo Hughes, A.B., A.M., 1933, 1934. English farce in the restoration.

Charles Walter Roberts, A.B., Ohio Wesleyan University, 1924; A.M., State University of Iowa, 1928. An edition of John Phillip's Commodye of Pacient and Mecke Grissill.

Dorothy Irene West, B.S., A.M., 1926, 1928. Italian opera in England (1660-1740), and some of its relationships to English literature.

In Entomology

Marion Estelle Smith, B.S., M.S., Massachusetts State College, 1935, 1936. A revision of the genus Apantesis Walker (Lepidoptera, Arctiidae).

In German

Lucille Virginia Palmer, A.B., Pembroke College, 1931; A.M., Brown University, 1933. The language of German expressionism.

In History

Eugene Maur Braderman, B.S., Temple University, 1935; A.M., 1936. A study of political parties and politics in Mexico since 1890.

Auld Lang Syne

Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to mind?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And days of auld lang syne?

For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne;
We'll take a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne.

Candidates for Degrees

The Graduate School

The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy

In Accountancy

John Wood McMahan, B.S., M.S., 1931, 1932. The relation of the concept of accounting cost to accounting knowledge.

In Botany

Walter Howard Brown, B.Ed., Illinois State Normal University, 1932; A.M., 1937. Plant communities of Illinois lakes.

Phyllis Lucy Cook, B.S., M.S., University of Pittsburgh, 1934, 1936. A morphological comparison of two species of Thuja.

In Chemistry

Theodore LeSueur Cairns, B.S., University of Alberta, 1936. I. Restricted rotation in certain 2-substituted biphenyls. II. Contribution to the structure of substituted cyclic imines.

John Hitchcock Chapin, B.Chem., Cornell University, 1935. The design of a flash calciner for the decomposition of hydrated zinc sulphite.

Walter Frederick Claussen, A.B., 1936. A study of the infra-red absorption spectra of certain organic molecules. I. Carboxylic acids. II. Glycols and glycol derivatives. III. Molecules exhibiting keto-enol tautomerism.

William Richard Dial, A.B., Ohio Wesleyan University, 1936. The structure of gossypol.

Lawrence Hallowell Dunlap, A.B., B.Ed., A.M., University of Missouri, 1931, 1933, 1935. I. The dimerization of 3-phenylindene. II. The polymerization of sulfur dioxide with olefins.

Lowell Depp Eubank, A.B., Kansas State Teachers College, 1936. Molal polarization as a measure of association in solution.

Wesley Orlean Fugate, B.S., Western Kentucky Teachers College, 1933. Bromomagnesium enolates.

Dudley Brewer Glass, A.B., Georgetown College, 1935. I. The possible asymmetry of a monosubstituted cyclononane. II. A study of the urea-formaldehyde condensation.

Hugh William Gray, B.S., M.S., University of Nebraska, 1936, 1937. Acyloins from tert-butylglyoxal.

Philip Handler, B.S., College of City of New York, 1936; M.S., 1937. The metabolism of n-substituted amino acids.

Alfred Anton Johnson, B.S., 1936. A study of the surface ionization of salts.

Jacob Kleinberg, B.S., Randolph-Macon College, 1934; M.S., 1937. I. Acid catalysis in liquid ammonia. The influence of α-constituents on the ammonolysis of esters. II. Reactions of sulfamic acid. The use of sulfamic acid in the separation of the rare earths.

Charles Louis Levesque, A.B., A.M., Dartmouth College, 1934, 1936. The structure of vinyl polymers: The polymers of methyl vinyl ketone, α-angelica lactone and acrylic acid and its derivatives.

Edward John Matson, B.S., A.B., Wheaton College, 1933; M.S., 1936. Synthesis in the coumaranone series.

Robert Lee May, B.S., M.S., 1935, 1937. The use of oxyhalogen acids in volumetric analysis.

Charles Hamilton McBurney, A.B., University of Oregon, 1933; M.S., Oregon State College, 1935. I. The ortho effect. II. 1,2-diaroylethylene glycols.

Victor Gerald Meadors, B.S., 1935. A study of the effect of temperature on the surface ionization of metals.

Donald Burton Melville, B.S., M.S., 1936, 1937. The synthesis and metabolism of certain hydroxybetaines related to choline.

Neil Sennett Moon, B.S., Pennsylvania State College, 1935. Structure of polystyrenes.

Herbert Dawson Rhodes, B.S., M.S., University of Arizona, 1935, 1936. X-ray particle size determination as applied to rubber carbon blacks.

Carl Linden Rollinson, B.S., University of Michigan, 1933. Studies in the chromammines.

James Halverson Sample, B.S., Elmhurst College, 1935; M.S., 1936. The structure of polyvinyl chloride.

Alvin George Sharp, B.S., M.S., 1935, 1936. Benzopyran derivatives.

Harry Hall Sisler, B.S., Ohio State University, 1936; M.S., 1937. A study of some sulfur-nitrogen compounds.

David Turnbull, Jr., B.S., Monmouth College, 1936. An investigation of various electron emitters for a periodic deviation from the Schottky line.

Ralph Waldo Wager, A.B., M.S., Emory University, 1935, 1936. The metabolism of certain indispensable amino acids.

Loring Rider Williams, B.S., West Virginia Wesleyan College, 1927; M.S., West Virginia University, 1932. Distribution of selenium in astragalus bisulcatus and seleniferous soils.

William Wilson Williams, B.S., University of Maryland, 1936. The action of sulfur dioxide on acetylenes.

Donald Edwin Wolf, B.S., Wheaton College, 1935. I. The action of methylmagnesium iodide on 2,6-dibromo-4-methylbenzoyl chloride. II. The methylation of β-ketonitriles. III. The action of sodium ethoxide on dibenzoylethylenes.

In Economics

Hale Lloyd Newcomer, A.B., B.S., M.S., 1924, 1925, 1930. Trading on the equity from the point of view of the investor.

Kenneth Lewis Trefftzs, B.S., M.S., 1936, 1937. The bankless communities in Illinois.

In Education

Leland Powers Bradford, A.B., A.M., 1931, 1935. The effect of practice upon variability in memory tests.

In Engineering

Alfred Earl Badger, B.S., Case School of Applied Science, 1922; M.S., 1929. Relation of chemical composition to certain physical properties of glass.

Cameron Gerald Harman, B.S., M.S., 1929, 1935. Some fundamental properties of raw clays influencing their uses.

Fay VaNisle Tooley, A.B., M.S., 1932, 1936. A study of the powder method for the measurement of the chemical durability of glass.

Carl Henry Zwermann, B.S., M.S., 1929, 1937. The relation of particle size to the characteristics of light reflected from porcelain enamel surfaces.

In English

Emerald Garrett Ballard, A.B., A.M., University of Mississippi, 1931. A study of certain masterpieces of prose fiction in the light of twentieth century criticism of technique.

Paul John Cooke, A.B., A.M., 1936, 1937. The Spanish romances in Sir Philip Sidney's Arcadia.

Michael Francis Moloney, A.B., Notre Dame University, 1926; A.M., Georgetown University, 1931. John Donne: The flight from Mediaevalism.

Frederic Charles Osenburg, A.B., A.M., University of Michigan, 1928, 1929. The ideas of the Golden Age and the decay of the world in the English Renaissance.

J. Allan Smith, A.B., Illinois Wesleyan University, 1927; A.M., 1932. Tolstoy's fiction in England and America.

In Geology

W. Farrin Hoover, A.B., University of Cincinnati, 1930; A.M., Kansas University, 1932. A study of the correlation value of insoluble residues of the Ste. Genevieve limestones at selected localities in Illinois and adjacent states.

In German

Carl Hammer, A.B., Catawba College, 1934; A.M., Vanderbilt University, 1936. Goethes Dichtung und Wahrheit—Literaturgeschichte oder Bildungserlebnis?

Alfred Charles Frederick Scherer, A.B., A.M., 1934, 1936. Formative influences in the life of the child in German prose fiction of the nineteenth century.

In History

Joseph Bliss James, A.B., A.M., University of Florida, 1934, 1935. The framing of the fourteenth amendment.

Marvin Edmund Lowe, A.B., Milligan College, 1935; A.M., 1937. The British tariff movement, 1910-1932.

Robert David Ochs, A.B., Illinois Wesleyan University, 1936; A.M., 1937. A history of Argentine immigration 1853-1924.

In Horticulture

Richard Vincent Lott, B.S., A.M., University of Missouri, 1925, 1926. A study of the seasonal development of the peach fruit.

In Mathematics

Warren Ambrose, B.S., M.S., 1935, 1936. Some properties of measurable stochastic processes.

Joseph Jackson Eachus, A.B., Miami University, 1933; A.M., Syracuse University, 1936. Regular solutions of non-linear q-difference systems.

Richard Arthur Leibler, B.S., A.M., Northwestern University, 1935, 1936. Analytic theory of non-linear singular differential systems whose associated systems are of Fuchsian type.

Andrew Oliver Lindstrum, Jr., A.B., Harvard University, 1935; A.M., 1936. Functions of a complex variable determined by their values on non dense sets.

Louis William Tordella, B.S., A.M., Loyola University, 1933, 1935. A classification of groups of order P^6, P an odd prime.

In Physics

John Wesley Clark, A.B., University of Montana, 1935; M.S., 1937. Measurement of the beta-ray spectra of nitrogen and indium with a new type of magnetic beta-ray spectrograph.

Lyle Winston Phillips, B.S., North Dakota State College, 1932; M.S., University of Buffalo, 1935. The extreme ultra-violet spectra of chlorine, potassium, calcium and scandium, isoelectronic with elements of the second short period.

Robert Rogers, A.B., M.S., 1936, 1937. The absorption and attenuation of sound in ducts.

In Political Science

Elliot Cassidy, A.B., A.M., 1934, 1935. Denial of justice as a concept of international law.

Ling Tung, A.B., Fuh Tan University, 1928; A.M., 1937. China and some phases of international law.

In Psychology

Hubert Edward Brogden, A.B., 1935. An empirical study of character traits.

Phil Sheridan Shurrager, B.S., Muskingum College, 1930; A.M., Ohio University, 1932. Conditioning in the spinal dog.

In Romance Languages

Joseph Henri Amiel, B.S., Lycee de Nice, France, 1920; A.B., College of William and Mary, 1930; A.M., 1933. Le réalisme de la "Sincérité dans l'Art" Courbet, Champfleury, Duranty, Buchon, Le Journal Réalisme.

Felix Bruno Giovanelli, A.B., A.M., 1935, 1936. The role of contemporary events in Anatole France's works.

Marshall Elbert Nunn, A.B., A.M., Stanford University, 1924, 1925. The life and works of Julian Del Casal.

In Zoology

Clarence James Goodnight, A.B., A.M., 1936, 1937. A monograph of the Branchiobdellidae (Oligochaeta) of American crayfishes.

Stephen Wood Gray, A.B., Lake Forest College, 1936; A.M., 1937. Contributions to the physiology of the heart beat in the chick and tortoise.

Sarah Elizabeth Jones, B.S., M.S., Southern Methodist University, 1934, 1935. Ecological studies on forest invertebrates.

Harry George Kimpel, A.B., Carroll College, 1934; M.S., University of Nebraska, 1936. Studies on the taxonomy of the genus Neodactylogyrus, with descriptions of new species, and the immunity of fresh-water fishes to gill trematodes (Gyrodactyloidea).

Marvin Clinton Meyer, B.S., Missouri State Teachers College, 1932; A.M., Ohio State University, 1936. A revision of the leeches (Piscicolidae) living on fresh-water fishes of North America.

Eugene Pleasants Odum, A.B., A.M., University of North Carolina, 1934, 1936. Variations in the heart rate of birds: a study in physiological ecology.

Auld Lang Syne

Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to mind?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And days of auld lang syne?

For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne;
We'll take a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne.

Candidates for Degrees

The Graduate School

Candidates presented by Robert Daniel Carmichael, Ph.D.,
Dean of the Graduate School

The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy

In Accountancy

Charles John Gaa, B.S., M.S., C.P.A., 1932, 1936, 1937. The Federal Income Tax concept of corporation income.

George Bueker McCowen, B.S., University of Missouri, 1920; A.M., University of Chicago, 1927. Logical transaction analysis.

In Agronomy

Roger Hammond Bray, B.S., Pennsylvania State College, 1923; M.S., 1926. The chemical nature of soil potassium in relation to its availability in Illinois soils.

Sherman Russell Dickman, B.S., Pennsylvania State College, 1936; M.S., 1937. Response of young corn plants to inorganic phosphates differing in solubility, and a fractionation of the organic phosphorus constituents of a soil.

Walter John Mumm, B.S., M.S., 1919, 1928. Inheritance and linkage relations of two new endosperm types in Dent corn.

Lawrence Carroll Olson, A.B., Augustana College, 1934; M.S., 1936. Methods of determination and data on the water-soluble and total boron in some soils of Illinois and Georgia.

In Bacteriology

Milo Donaldson Appleman, A.B., M.S., 1931, 1935. Bacterial decomposition of starch.

John William Appling, B.S., M.S., 1921, 1925. Microbiology of pulp and paper.

In Botany

Robert Virgil Drexler, B.S., Bradley Polytechnic Institute, 1934; M.S., 1936. Community and geographic relations of bryophytes in southwestern Ontario.

Margaret Kaeiser, B.S., M.S., University of Oklahoma, 1934, 1936. Morphology and embryogeny of the bald cypress, Taxodium distichum (L.) Rich.

In Chemistry

Bernard Randall Baker, A.B., University of California at Los Angeles, 1937. I. The structure of gossypol. II. The structure of cannabinol.

Harry Carroll Becker, B.S., M.S., 1936, 1937. The selective oxidation of levulose by potassium ferricyanide.

Arthur Berger, B.S., M.S., 1937, 1938. Reactions of aryl carbinols.

Joe Haller Clark, A.B., A.M., University of Texas, 1935, 1937. I. Derivatives of benzofuroquinolines. II. Structure of cannabidiol.

Joseph Walters Corse, A.B., University of California at Los Angeles, 1936. A synthesis of benzils and a novel derivative—a new type of enediol.

Lester John Dankert, B.S., Alma College, 1936. Restricted rotation in aryl amines; resolution of N-alkyl-N-acyl mesidines.

Richard Wayne Darbyshire, B.S., Iowa State College, 1931. Reactions of metal oxides with sodium chloride and sulfur dioxide.

Joseph Dec, A.B., Indiana University, 1936. Preparation of haloacrylates and mode of polymerization.

Joseph Richard Downing, A.B., Central College, 1937. A study of the character of hydrogen bonding in nitrogen compounds.

Frederick Robert Duke, A.B., University of South Dakota, 1937. The qualitative and quantitative application of perchlorato cerate ion to organic analysis.

Emanuel Ginsberg, B.S., New York University, 1936; M.S., 1937. I. Hydrogen bonding by C-H. II. Hydrogen bonding by S-H. III. Effect of substitution on the dissociation of hexaarylethanes: Meta phenyl group.

Marvin Harold Gold, A.B., University of California at Los Angeles, 1937. The chemical and physical properties of the Diene addition products to diaroylethylenes.

Gerald Francis Grillot, A.B., Ohio State University, 1936. Dialkylaminomethylnaphthols and their derivatives.

Charles Elmer Holley, Jr., B.S., 1937. Studies in the separation of gases by thermal diffusion.

Evan Charles Horning, B.S., University of Pennsylvania, 1937. I. Endiols from hexaisopropylbenzil. II. Bimolecular reduction of mesitaldehyde.

Eugene Everett Howe, B.S., M.S., Kansas State College, 1936, 1937. Studies on the synthesis of tyrosine in the animal body.

Raymond Nevoy Keller, A.B., A.M., Indiana University, 1937. Studies of some coordination compounds of platinum, chromium, and cobalt. I. Olefin compounds of platinum. II. Amino acid compounds of chromium and cobalt.

Nathan Kornblum, B.S., M.S., New York University, 1935, 1937. I. Restriction of rotation of biphenyls by means of a many-membered ring through the 3, 3′- positions. II. Addendum.

Karl Frederick Krebs, B.S., 1936. The infrared absorption spectra of proteins in the 3 μ region.

Ruth Elizabeth Leslie, A.B., A.M., University of Texas, 1932, 1934. The biological synthesis of certain amino acids during growth.

Robert Sidney Long, B.S., St. Mary's College, 1936. The structure of monocrotaline.

Peter Charles Markunas, B.S., Shurtleff College, 1934; M.S., 1937. Complex cations in microanalysis: The application of 2,2′-dipyridyl, ortho-phenanthroline, and nitro-ortho-phenanthroline complexes in the microscopical detection of anions.

Charles Harlan McKeever, B.S., Illinois Wesleyan University, 1936. Mesityl ketones and the ortho effect.

Matthew William Miller, B.S., Montana State College, 1936. Restricted rotation in aryl olefins.

Velma E. Nichols, A.B., M.S., University of Oklahoma, 1928, 1932. Diaryl ketone peroxides.

Marion Thomas O'Shaughnessy, Jr., A.B., University of Florida, 1934; M.S., Catholic University of America, 1937. The ultraviolet absorption spectra of some organic compounds.

Donald Emanual Pearson, B.S., University of Wisconsin, 1936. Polynuclear compounds from acetylenic glycols.

William Christian Risser, B.S., 1937. Synthesis and metabolism of ketohydroxy acids.

Paul Gordan Roach, B.S., Indiana University, 1936. A study of the structure, interfacial reactions, and rectifying properties of selenium films.

James Vance Robinson, A.B., Pomona College, 1936. A study of surface orientation.

Robert Rowan, Jr., B.S., West Texas State Teachers College, 1934. I. The radioactive indicator method applied to the lead storage cell. II. A study of polymorphous transitions in lead oxides.

Samuel LeRoy Scott, B.S., Illinois Wesleyan University, 1937; M.S., 1938. Enediols from 2, 6-xylil.

William McKinley Shafer, B.S., M.S., 1934, 1939. I. A new technique of X-ray microradiography. II. Quantitative evaluation of crystalline distortion and fatigue by X-ray diffraction.

Francis James Sprules, A.B., University of Toronto, 1936; M.S., 1937. I. The reactivity of phenanthrene-9, 10-dicarboxylic acid anhydride. II. The structure of monocrotaline. III. Addendum.

Howard Maple Teeter, B.S., Bradley Polytechnic Institute, 1937; M.S., 1938. I. Comparison of interference values of methoxyl and hydroxyl groups in resolvable biphenyls. II. Synthesis of desapogossypolone tetramethyl ether.

Thomas Ross Wood, B.S., University of Denver, 1937. The biological interrelationships of certain amino acids.

In Classics

William Robert Jones, A.B., A.M., 1937, 1938. The text tradition of Avianus.

Revilo Pendleton Oliver, A.B., A.M., 1933. Niccolò Perotti's translation of the Enchiridion.

Eileen Patricia Ryan, A.B., Monmouth College, 1935; A.M., 1936. The verse adaptations of Avianus. Part I. The Astensis and its derivatives.

Grundy Steiner, A.B., A.M., 1937, 1938. The Urbana manuscript of selections from the Vergilian appendix.

In Economics

Claude David Baldwin, B.S., University of Denver, 1937; M.S., 1938. Theoretical considerations of economic planning.

Curtis Miller Elliott, A.B., A.M., 1934, 1935. The causes of and the problems resulting from the increased sales of life annuities by life insurance companies.

The Graduate School

The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy

In Anatomy

Allan Gibson Brodie, D.D.S., University of Pennsylvania, 1919; M.S., 1934. On the growth pattern of the human head from the third month to the eighth year of life.

In Surgery

Carlo Salvadore Scuderi, B.S., M.D., M.S., 1926, 1929, 1935. Fat embolism in fractures. A study of control cases and clinical diagnostic methods.

The Degree of Master of Science

In Bacteriology

Mark Meyer Schapiro, A.B., Johns Hopkins University, 1934; M.D., George Washington University, 1938
Fannie Skolnik, B.S., M.D., 1936, 1939

In Dental Histology

James Albert Gagnon, B.S., D.D.S., 1931, 1933

In Medicine

Milton Feinberg, B.S., 1938
Harold Frank Hailman, B.S., 1938
Harve William Jourdan, Jr., B.S., 1938
Lewis Goodell McKeever, A.B., Illinois Wesleyan University, 1935
Harold Morris Perlmutter, B.S., 1938
Eugene Weiss, B.S., 1938

In Neurology

Aaron Arthur Hilkevitch, B.S., University of Chicago, 1933; M.D., 1937
Sam Kruger, B.S., 1938

In Orthodontia

John Philip Baldridge, D.D.S., Ohio State University, 1935
Milton Baer Engel, D.D.S., 1938
Philip Levine, D.D.S., Georgetown University, 1938
Robert Francois Schoenwetter, D.D.S., Marquette University, 1938

In Pathology

Herbert Kerman Abrams, B.S., Northwestern University, 1936

In Pharmacology

James Asbury Bone, A.B., Biddle University, 1911; M.D., Meharry Medical College, 1919

In Physiological Chemistry

Bessie Genevieve Osgood, A.B., B.S., Indiana Central College, 1932, 1933
Kenneth Carl Robbins, B.S., 1939

In Physiology

George Robert Chobot, B.S., 1938
Arnold Louis Cohn, B.S., 1938
Walter Gaines, B.S., 1938
Jack William Grossman, B.S., M.D., 1934, 1937
Frank Leo Pollack, B.S., University of Maryland, 1937
Albert Robert Weinglass, B.S., 1938

In Psychiatry

Mandel Sachs, M.D., 1936

In Surgery

Edward Ragnar Anderson, B.S., M.D., 1932, 1935
William Henry Requarth, M.D., 1939

Degrees Conferred Since the Last Commencement

Conferred in August and October, 1939, and in February, 1940

The Graduate School

The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy

In Agronomy

Robert Burns Musgrave, B.S., M.S., 1936, 1938. Life history studies of Poa Pratensis L. (February)

In Animal Husbandry

George Abraham Branaman, B.S., Purdue University, 1918; M.S., Michigan State College, 1926. Some factors in lamb production associated with size and type in mutton sheep. (October)

Edward Wise Burroughs, B.S., 1934. A study of the endogenous metabolism of nitrogen with special reference to the amino acid requirements of maintenance. (October)

Frank Isa Nakamura, A.B., Occidental College, 1926; A.M., Stanford University, 1927. The effect of the level of phosphorus in the diet upon the metabolism and utilization of energy, calcium, and phosphorus. (October)

Ray Treichler, B.S., M.S., Pennsylvania State College, 1929. Effect of age and other factors on the relationship between basal metabolism and endogenous nitrogen metabolism. (October)

In Chemistry

Leonard Byman, B.S., Purdue University, 1935. Studies in distillation. (February)

Harry Murray Clark, B.S., 1936. A mass spectrograph designed for study of surface ionization. (February)

Harold Groves Cooke, Jr., B.S., Southwestern College (Tennessee), 1936. Conjugation in unsaturated esters. (February)

Paul Franklin Cundy, A.B., M.S., 1930, 1932. A study of the inorganic salts of certain organic acids. I. Refractometric studies on complex formation. (October)

Albert Robert Hanke, B.S., M.S., 1933, 1936. I. Chemical complexity as indicated by Raman Spectra. Hydrates in solution. Amphoteric hydroxides in alkaline solution. II. Raman Spectra as applied to quantitative analysis. (October)

Russell Lowell Hicks, B.Ed., Southern Illinois State Normal University, 1934; M.S., 1936. Arylsulfonyl derivatives of proline. (October)

Max Best Mueller, A.B., M.S., 1936, 1937. The effect of substituents upon the dissociation of hexaarylethanes. (October)

Donald Francis Peppard, B.S., 1937. The stereochemistry of complex inorganic compounds. The preparation and stereochemical properties of some cobalt amines. (October)

John Wendell Robinson, Jr., B.S., Northwestern University, 1931; M.S., 1937. The influence of the t-butyl radical in 1,4-dipivalylbutane. (October)

Sydney Ross, B.S., McGill University, 1936. Foaminess and coagulation of protein soils: With special reference to brewing problems. (February)

Sister Mary Joan Preising, O.S.F., A.B., DePaul University, 1926; M.S., 1937. The separation and detection of the members of the halate-halide mixture. (February)

Ansel Parrish Swain, B.S., M.S., Emory University, 1932, 1934. The effect of alterations in structure on the biological properties of methionine. (October)

In Economics

Peter Masiko, Jr., A.B., Lehigh University, 1936; A.M., 1937. Recent wage and hour legislation—an economic analysis. (October)

Glenn Wasson Miller, B.Ed., Southern Illinois State Normal University, 1934; A.M., 1935. Labor policies of consumers' cooperatives in Great Britain and the United States. (October)

Lawrence Leslie Waters, B.S., Central Missouri State Teachers College, 1935; A.M., 1936. State obstructions to interstate trade with reference to use taxes and liquor control. (October)

In English

Edgar Wilson Lacy, A.B., A.M., Vanderbilt University, 1936, 1937. Sir John Fortescue and the law of nature. (October)

Sister Mary Beatrice Schiller, A.B., DePaul University, 1929; A.M., 1931. Trends in modern poetic drama in English, 1900-1938. (October)

In French

Beulah Hope Swigart, A.B., A.M., 1924, 1928. The Americas as revealed in the Encyclopedie. (February)

In German

Elisabeth Schroeder Hartsook, A.B., A.M., 1933, 1934. Studies in the language of Wilhelm Raabe. (October)

In History

Ernest Melvin Hall, B.S., A.M., 1934, 1936. Society in the Lower Mississippi Valley, 1731-1741. (October)

In Physics

Frank Jewell Willig, A.B., University of Montana, 1936; M.S., 1937. Comparison of sound absorption coefficients obtained by different methods. (October)

In Psychology

William Algeo Hunter, B.S., M.S., University of Idaho, 1936. The function of the cerebral cortex in audition. (October)

Harriett Cantrall Shurrager, A.B., MacMurray College, 1936; M.S., 1937. The measurement of memory on an absolute scale. (February)

William Frederick Thomas, A.B., Miami University, 1935; A.M., 1936. A study of organic set: immediate reproduction, by different muscle systems, of patterns presented point by point to the eye. (October)

John Maurice Willmann, A.B., A.M., 1935, 1936. The effect of a fixed change in difficulty introduced at various levels of difficulty. (October)

In Romance Languages

Joseph Cedeyco, A.B., Transylvania College, 1923; A.M., University of Chicago, 1928. German criticism of Anatole France. (October)

John Hooker Hartsook, A.B., A.M., 1933, 1934. Becquer and Heine—a comparison. (October)

In Zoology

Charles Leplie Kanatzar, B.Ed., Eastern Illinois State Teachers College, 1935; M.S., 1936. A cytological study of Blepharisma with special reference to its fibrillar structures. (February)

The Degree of Master of Arts

In Botany

Mary Josephine Cox, B.S., Murray State Teachers College, 1937 (August)

In Chemistry

John Peter Lamboy, A.B., M.S., Kalamazoo College, 1937, 1938 (October)
John Hadley McCracken, A.B., Earlham College, 1937 (October)
Dorothy Cline Webb, A.B., Hood College, 1938 (August)

In Classics

Marie Baudison, B.Ed., Southern Illinois State Normal University, 1931 (October)
Alene Cantrell Galbreath, B.Ed., Southern Illinois State Normal University, 1935 (August)
Elizabeth Joiner, A.B., 1929 (August)
Emily Josephine Kelley, B.S., 1930 (October)
Margaret Frances Seybold, A.B., 1935 (October)
Sister Mary Matthew Cain, O.P., A.B., Catholic University of America, 1922 (August)
Helen Regan Sleeter, A.B., James Millikin University, 1923 (August)
Harriet Jean Sluss, A.B., Northwestern University, 1914 (August)

In Economics

Nathaniel Jackendoff, B.S., College of the City of New York, 1938 (October)
Tan-Ling Liu, LL.B., Soochow University, 1938 (February)
Anton William Perne, A.B., Knox College, 1931 (October)
Leonard Phelps Pottorff, B.Ed., Southern Illinois State Normal University, 1937 (October)
Herbert Findley Propps, A.B., 1937 (October)
Sister Mary Bernadella Reilly, A.B., Rosary College, 1931 (October)
Paul David Zook, A.B., Goshen College, 1934 (February)

In Education

Herbert Leon Adams, B.Ed., Illinois State Normal University, 1935 (October)
Marie Alsager, B.Ed., Northern Illinois State Teachers College, 1929 (October)
Harry Henry Arkebauer, B.S., 1933 (October)
Clarence Allen Armstrong, B.Ed., Southern Illinois State Normal University, 1936 (August)
Louise Wright Astell, A.B., 1937 (February)
Ralph Waldo Barrymore, B.Ed., Illinois State Normal University, 1927 (August)
Bernice Belle Barton, A.B., 1933 (October)
Edward Michael Bertolino, B.S., Bradley Polytechnic Institute, 1932 (August)
Maynard J. Black, Ph.B., Carroll College, 1927 (October)

Auld Lang Syne

Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to mind?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And days of auld lang syne?

For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne;
We'll take a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne.

Candidates for Degrees

The Graduate School

Candidates presented by Robert Daniel Carmichael, Ph.D.,
Dean of the Graduate School

The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy

In Agronomy

Frank Frederick Riecken, B.S., M.S., University of Saskatchewan, 1930, 1934. Some considerations in the magnesium cycle of weathering in Solonetz soils.

In Bacteriology

Carl John DeBoer, B.S., 1935; M.S., Rutgers University, 1937. The use of nitrates and nitrites in meat curing and preservation.

In Botany

Howard William Larsh, A.B., McKendree College, 1936; M.S., 1938. Etiology of bacterial spot of stone fruits with special reference to epiphytotics and to dissemination of the causal organism, Phytomonas pruni (E.F.S.) Bergey et al.

Stanley William Oexemann, A.B., McKendree College, 1937; M.S., 1939. Relation of seed weight to vegetative growth, differentiation, and yield in plants.

William Ernest Wilson, B.S., Wheaton College, 1936; M.S., 1939. Physiological studies on the corn diplodias.

In Chemistry

Arthur William Anderson, B.S., Northwestern University, 1937. I. Restricted rotation in aryl olefins. II. Structure of leucenol.

Marvin Douglas Armstrong, B.S., University of South Carolina, 1938; M.S., 1939. I. A new type of coupling reaction 4,4′-diaroylbiphenyls. II. 1,4 addition of the Grignard reagent to mesityl aryl ketones.

Lyda McClellen Arnett, Jr., B.S., West Virginia Wesleyan College, 1936; M.S., West Virginia University, 1938. The surface ionization of salts on metallic filaments.

Lyell Christian Behr, B.S., University of Minnesota, 1937. I. Tertiary amides and hydrogen bonding. II. Enediols in the naphthalene series.

Edward John Bicek, A.B., Carleton College, 1937. I. Extension of the technique of microradiography to biological materials. II. Critical studies of some controversial theories concerning the structure of cellulose.

Howard Wissler Bond, B.S., University of Arkansas, 1936; M.S., 1938. The oximetric estimation of thiocyanates.

Edmond Milton Bottorff, A.B., Hanover College, 1937. I. Action of the Grignard reagent on sterically hindered esters. II. Trimerization of duryl vinyl ketone.

Lester Allen Brooks, B.S., Massachusetts Institute of Technology, 1935. The preparation and dehydrogenation of spirans.

Benjamin Dimmick Deacon, A.B., University of Toronto, 1938; A.M., 1939. The action of the Grignard reagent on cis-trans isomers.

Jack Joe Denton, B.S., Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College, 1937. I. An abnormal reaction in the Sommelet aldehyde synthesis. II. The coupling action of the Grignard reagent and the ortho effect.

Frederick Curt Dietz, A.B., Stanford University, 1932. I. Solubility of donor solutes in halogenated hydrocarbons. II. Dissociation of substituted hexaarylethanes.

James Harkema, A.B., Calvin College, 1937. I. Hydrogen bonding as a factor in solubility. II. Attempts to form chelate rings involving C-H ← N and C-H ← O bonds.

Charles Frederick Kade, A.B., Carleton College, 1936; M.S., North Dakota Agricultural College, 1938. The origin of glycine in vivo.

Robert Warren Kell, B.Ed., Southern Illinois State Normal University, 1937; M.S., 1938. The kinetics and mechanism of vinyl polymerization.

Stanton Coit Kelton, Jr., B.S., Harvard University, 1937. Enediols from duril and isoduril.

Stanley Felix Kern, B.S., College of Saint Thomas, 1937. A study of the correlation of electrical and structural properties of plates in the lead storage battery.

Carl Bernard Kretschmer, A.B., University of Colorado, 1938. Dielectric constants of solutions containing associating molecules.

Ivar Trygve Krohn, B.Chem., University of Minnesota, 1937. Displacements of hydroxyl frequencies in solution and solid state.

Anthony Hamilton Land, B.S., University of Kentucky, 1936. I. The reactions of 2-phenylbenzisosulfonazole. II. The structure of the bisulfite compound of acetaldehyde.

Richard Vernon Lindsey, Jr., A.B., Knox College, 1937. I. Bromostilbenediols. II. Stereochemistry of the monoenol, 1,2-dimesityl-1-propen-1-ol.

Robert Bruce Moffett, A.B., Hanover College, 1937; A.M., 1939. Structure of flavylium salts.

Lawrence Arthur Patterson, B.S., Montana State College, 1937. The application of the dienyne synthesis to the production of perhydrophenanthrene derivatives and other polynuclear hydroaromatic compounds.

Betty Rapp, B.S., M.S., University of Toledo, 1935, 1938. The stereochemistry of inorganic complex compounds. I. Reactions of dichlorodiethylenediamine cobaltic chloride with nitrites. II. The stereoisomers of dichlorodiethylenediamine platinic chloride.

Frederic Paul Richter, A.B., A.M., Temple University, 1936, 1938. The synthesis and analytical applications of 1,10-phenanthroline derivatives.

Edward Hollister Riddle, B.S., Harvard University, 1937. The structure of vinyl polymers.

William Holley Rieger, A.B., University of Louisville, 1937. The disproportionation of certain p-alkyltriphenylmethyls.

Prince Earl Rouse, Jr., A.B., Central College, 1938. The association of benzoic acid in solution.

William Henry Sharkey, B.S., Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College, 1937. The reaction between sulfur dioxide and olefins.

Carleton Angelo Sperati, A.B., Luther College, 1938; A.M., 1939. Stable vinyl alcohols.

Carl Mantle Stevens, A.B., American University, 1937. I. Azlactones. II. Metabolism of fatty acids.

William Henry Taylor, Jr., B.S., University of Wisconsin, 1937. New developments of microanalytical chemistry.

Robert William Upson, B.S., M.S., University of Nebraska, 1937, 1938. The synthesis of amidines.

Warren Lewis Walton, B.S., Millsaps College, 1935; M.S., Louisiana State University, 1937. Synthesis and study of methoxy-substituted dienynes.

Richard Benjamin Wearn, B.S., Clemson Agricultural College, 1937; M.S., 1939. I. Diene addition products to diaroylethylenes and their transformation products. II. A study of the products from Cannabis sativa.

Eldred Welch, B.Ed., Southern Illinois State Normal University, 1937; M.S., 1939. Derivatives of 2-ketophenmorpholine.

In Classics

Nathan Dane, II, A.B., Bowdoin College, 1937; A.M., 1939. The D2 recension of the alphabetical corpus of Greek proverbs.

Sylvester Byron Straw, A.B., Wheaton College, 1937; A.M., 1938. The Testimonia regarding Euripides.

In Economics

William Edward Alley, A.B., DePauw University, 1926; A.M., 1932. The nationalization of central banks, with particular reference to developments in Canada, England, France, and the United States.

Leland James Pritchard, A.B., Cornell College, 1929; A.M., Syracuse University, 1930. The short-run shifting of unit taxes with special reference to the processing taxes levied under the Agricultural Adjustment Act.

Richard Chester Ryniker, B.S., M.S., 1938, 1939. Control of production in the petroleum industry.

In Education

Melvin Wallace Barnes, A.B., Greenville College, 1932; M.S., 1934. Geneticism and the concepts of educational psychology.

Dwight York, B.S., M.S., 1928, 1934. Some social-economic implications of certain industrial aspects of community life for educational administration, with special reference to Decatur, Illinois.

In Engineering

Wan-Chiu Chang, B.S., National Sun Yat-Sen University, 1936; D.I.C., Imperial College of Science and Technology, 1939; M.S., 1940. A study of the traffic capacity of railways by the application of the relation between delays to train operation and number of trains operated.

Antonio Ruiz Rodriguez, B.S., M.S., University of the Philippines, 1931, 1938; M.S., 1940. A study of photoluminescence in glasses.

In English

David Kincaid Bruner, A.B., A.M., Washington University, 1933, 1934. Family life in early Victorian prose fiction.

Frank Warren Clippinger, A.B., Wabash College, 1916; A.M., 1917. Ruskin's ideas on education in relation to twentieth century educational reform.

Julius Nicholas Hook, A.B., A.M., 1933, 1934. Eighteenth century imitations of Spenser.

Robert Borgia Orlovich, A.B., A.M., 1929, 1930. Samuel Johnson's political ideas and their influence on his works.

In Entomology

John Donovan DeCoursey, A.B., Louisiana State University, 1930; A.M., 1937. Studies on the effect of certain insecticides on the beet leafhopper with special reference to lime sulphur.

In French

Jean Saba, B.Ed., Southern Illinois State Normal University, 1937; A.M., 1938. Balzac as a social historian.

In Geology

Robert Sinclair Dietz, B.S., M.S., 1937, 1939. Clay minerals in recent marine sediments.

Kenneth Orris Emery, B.S., M.S., 1937, 1939. Lithology of the sea-floor off southern California.

Virgil Dean Winkler, A.B., B.S., M.S., 1938, 1938, 1939. Stratigraphic geology of the Pennington of eastern Kentucky and east central Tennessee.

In German

Gilbert Clarence Kettelkamp, A.B., A.M., 1928, 1931. Jean Paul and his relationship to the pedagogical theories of his day.

In History

James Harvey Young, A.B., Knox College, 1937; A.M., 1938. Anna Elizabeth Dickinson and the Civil War.

In Horticulture

Marion Ashton Smith, B.S., Kansas State Agricultural College, 1922; M.S., Iowa State College, 1925. Blister spot of apple, including a study of the pathogenicity and physiology of the causal organism and histological considerations.

In Mathematics

David Harold Blackwell, A.B., A.M., 1938, 1939. Some properties of Markoff chains.

Ernest Evred Blanche, A.B., A.M., Bucknell University, 1938. A systematic analysis of frequency distributions by the Edgeworth method.

Philip Wilkinson Carruth, A.B., Hamilton College, 1936; A.M., Syracuse University, 1937. Valuations with given residue class field and value group.

Benjamin Epstein, B.S., M.S., Massachusetts Institute of Technology, 1937, 1938. On a certain class of transforms.

Lois Kiefer, A.B., Park College, 1935; A.M., 1938. A radial analysis of the structure of the Milky Way in Auriga, based on star counts and color excesses.

Charles Frederick Strobel, A.B., A.M., University of Buffalo, 1935, 1937. The quadrilinear form (1,1,1,2).

In Physics

Adam Clarke Beiler, B.S., Allegheny College, 1933; M.S., 1936. The molecular spectrum of potassium hydride.

John Wesley Coltman, B.S., Case School of Applied Science, 1937; M.S., 1939. Absorption cross sections for slow neutrons.

Emmeth August Luebke, A.B., Ripon College, 1936; A.M., 1938. The velocity dependence of the cross section of boron for the capture of slow neutrons.

Daniel William Martin, A.B., Georgetown College, 1937; M.S., 1939. A physical investigation of the performance of brass musical wind instruments.

Herbert Arnold Nye, A.B., Allegheny College, 1936; A.M., 1938. The theory of nuclear forces.

Russell DeWitt O'Neal, A.B., DePauw University, 1936; M.S., 1938. The production and properties of radioactive hydrogen and other radioactive investigations.

William Lockwood Parker, A.B., Reed College, 1936; A.M., 1938. Highly ionized spectra of the inert gases.
Robert Douglas Rawcliffe, A.B., North Central College, 1937; M.S., 1939. Lifetime of fluorescence by an electronic method.

In Sociology

Bernard George Mulvaney, A.B., Saint Viator College, 1930; A.M., Catholic University of America, 1934; Lic. en Sci. Pol. et Soc., Louvain University, 1938. A correlational analysis of the relation between the Catholic composition of a population and its birth rate.

In Spanish

Milton L. Goldberg, B.S., 1939
Bernard Gomberg, B.S., 1939

In Psychology

Leonard Schomer Krause, B.S., 1936
Samuel Wexler, B.S., 1940

In Surgery

Robert Leslie Grissom, B.S., 1939
Hymen Leon Udesky, B.S., M.D., 1934, 1937

Degrees Conferred Since the Last Commencement

Conferred in August and October, 1940 and in February, 1941

The Graduate School

The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy

In Accountancy

Norbert George Bausch, B.S., Creighton University, 1932; M.S., 1933. The relation between accounting and certain recent developments in the statutory law of business corporations. (February)

In Agronomy

Ernest Benton Earley, B.S., Clemson College, 1928; M.S., Virginia Polytechnic Institute, 1929. Time and rate of synthesis of phytin, invert sugar, and total sugars in corn grain during the reproductive period. (February)

Leonard Elroy Ensminger, B.S., University of Missouri, 1935. The absorption of proteins by clay minerals and the properties of the resulting complexes. (October)

Edgar Emerson Hartwig, B.S., University of Minnesota, 1937; M.S., 1939. Genetic studies in the genus Melilotus. (February)

Guy Donald Smith, B.S., 1930; M.S., University of Missouri, 1934. Some variations in the properties of the Peorian loess and their pedologic significance. (October)

Lynne K. Wood, A.B., Brigham Young University, 1936; M.S., 1938. The chemical effects of soluble potassium salts on some Illinois soils. (February)

In Animal Husbandry

Lorin E. Harris, B.S., Utah State Agricultural College, 1937; M.S., 1938. The quantitative utilization of urea nitrogen by mature and growing sheep. (October)

John Harwood Longwell, B.S., A.M., University of Missouri, 1918, 1920. The endogenous level of calcium metabolism as affected by various factors. (February)

In Bacteriology

Parker Reynolds Beamer, A.B., M.S., 1935, 1937. Heat resistance of certain yeasts and non-spore-forming pathogenic bacteria. (October)

S. E. Richard Donovick, A.B., A.M., University of California at Los Angeles, 1934, 1935. Studies on bios. (October)

Ernest Maynard Weber, A.B., M.S., 1936, 1938. The incidence of Clostridium botulinum on fresh frozen foods. (October)

In Chemistry

Stanford William Briggs, B.S., California Institute of Technology, 1937; M.S., 1938. A study of liquid extraction. (February)

Eugene Oskar Brimm, B.S., University of Wisconsin, 1938; M.S., 1938. Observations on the rare earths: I. A study of the possible radioactivity of illinium. II. Preparation and properties of rare earth salts of beta-diketones. (October)

Donald Eugene Burney, A.B., University of South Dakota, 1937. Reactions of 2,8-dihydroxy-1-naphthaldehyde. (February)

Elmer Henry Dobratz, B.S., University of Wisconsin, 1937; M.S., 1938. I. Decomposition of thioketals. II. Reactions of dehydroacetic acid. III. Solubility of n-alkylacetanilides in water and dilute hydrochloric acid. (October)

Richard Samuel Egly, B.S., Purdue University, 1936; M.S., 1938. The viscosity of gases at high pressures. (October)

Charles Rice Harmison, Jr., A.B., Montana State University, 1937. Some ultraviolet absorption spectra studies. (February)

Julius Frank Kaplan, B.S., 1937. The effect of substituents upon the dissociation of hexaarylethanes. (February)

Russell John Keirs, B.S., M.S., 1937, 1938. Spectrographic analysis of plant material. (February)

Arthur Edwin Kott, B.S., M.S., University of Chicago, 1931, 1932. Electrolytic and photometric studies of cerium solutions. (October)

Graham Watson McMillan, B.S., Monmouth College, 1937. Infrared absorption of hydrogen in nitrogen compounds; the effect of hydrogen bonding on the carbonyl absorption. (February)

Thomas Doran O'Brien, B.S., A.M., George Washington University, 1935, 1938. The preparation and stereochemistry of some inorganic coordination compounds. I. Configuration changes in the reactions of some compounds of cobalt and chromium. II. The thermal decomposition of luteo chromic salts. (February)

Frank McLeran Rugg, A.B., Mississippi College, 1933; M.S., Louisiana State University, 1935. New applications of the film balance. (February)

Robert Olvin Sauer, A.B., Coe College, 1936. I. Synthetic antimalarials. II. Stereochemistry of 2-substituted biphenyls. (February)

John William Shackleton, A.B., M.S., Vanderbilt University, 1932, 1933. I. Hexaarylethanes containing naphthalene and anthracene groups. II. The structure of polypentynesulfone. (February)

William John Shannon, A.B., M.S., 1936, 1938. I. The use of zeolite material for the improvement of sugar sirups. II. A critical examination of the methods for the determination of levulose in natural products. (February)

Bhagat Singh, B.S., M.S., 1933, 1934. Absorption of energy from high frequency sound waves. (October)

Lynwood Nelson Whitehill, A.B., A.M., Dartmouth College, 1935, 1937. I. A new synthesis of many-membered rings. II. Restricted rotation about aliphatic carbon-carbon bonds. (February)

Michael Witte, B.S., Loyola University, 1937; M.S., 1938. The synthesis of substituted benzofurans and dihydrobenzofurans. (February)

In Classics

Theodore Bedrick, A.B., Brown University, 1936; A.M., 1937. The prose adaptations of Avianus. (October)

In Economics

Gordon Carroll Losee, B.S., M.S., 1931, 1936. The reorganization of the electric power industry into regional systems. (October)

Julian Donald Morgan, A.B., A.M., 1934, 1935. Use of the federal taxing power for other than revenue purposes. (October)

James Charles Pettee, B.S., M.S., 1932, 1933. The taxation of public utilities in Illinois. (February)

In Education

Arlyn Marks, A.B., Illinois College, 1934; A.M., 1937. The personnel point of view and the administration of extra-curricular activities in nine universities. (October)

In Engineering

Powell Pao-Wo Tsu, B.S., Chiao Tung University, 1933; M.C.E., Cornell University, 1935; M.S., Harvard University, 1936. A study of the importance of wind on reinforced concrete arch bridges. (October)

In English

Robert John Geist, B.S., Cornell University, 1932; A.M., University of Missouri, 1934. The King of Tars, a medieval romance. (October)

In Entomology

Richard William Fay, B.S., M.S., Iowa State College, 1934, 1935. Quantitative distribution in various parts of the body of sodium metarsenite after being fed to the American roach, Periplaneta americana (Linn.). (October)

Herbert Frederick Schoof, B.S., M.S., North Carolina State College of Agriculture and Engineering, 1936, 1938. The genus Conotrachelus (Coleoptera, Curculionidae) in the North Central United States. (October)

In French

Lawrence Harold Bussard, A.B., Ohio Wesleyan University, 1925; A.M., Northwestern University, 1928. French literary criticism in the Mercure de France, 1890-1899. (October)

George Robert Hilton, A.B., A.M., University of Minnesota, 1929, 1930. The social importance of the machine in France as seen in nineteenth century French literature. (October)

Laurence LeSage, A.B., A.M., 1935, 1936. Jean Giraudoux's use of the metaphor. (October)

Sister Mary Aniceta Guyette, A.B., A.M., DePaul University, 1924, 1925; B.S.(Lib.), 1928. The moniteur universel and romanticism, 1813-1830. (October)

In German

Emory Keith Rees, A.B., B.S., A.M., 1937, 1937, 1938. German criticism of the historical novel from 1800 to the present. (October)

In History

William Eldon Baringer, B.S., A.M., 1931, 1932. Lincoln as president-elect: Springfield phase. (October)

Aretas Arnold Dayton, B.Ed., Illinois State Normal University, 1936; A.M., 1939. Recruitment and conscription in Illinois during the Civil War. (October)

Dallas M. Young, B.Ed., Southern Illinois State Normal University, 1936; A.M., 1937. A history of the Progressive Miners of America, 1932-1940.

In Mathematics

Margaret Mary Hansman, A.B., A.M., Colorado College, 1931, 1936. A geometric investigation into metabelian groups generated by four elements of order P. (February)

Franz Edward Hohn, B.S., McKendree College, 1936; M.S., 1937. Curves on Cayley's dianodal surface. (October)

In Political Science

Willmoore Kendall, Jr., A.B., University of Oklahoma, 1927; A.M., Northwestern University, 1928. John Locke and the doctrine of majority-rule. (October)

In Psychology

Joseph Everett Brewer, A.B., A.M., University of Kansas, 1936, 1937. The measurement of the behavior of second grade children in relation to the teachers' dominative and socially integrative contact. (October)

In Zoology

Harry Warren Cumings, Jr., B.S., Massachusetts Institute of Technology, 1932; A.M., Harvard University, 1938. A histological study of the effects of vitamin E deficiency on the guppy, Lebistes reticulatus. (October)

Russell Perry Hager, A.B., Bates College, 1934; A.M., 1935. Cytological studies of the bar alleles of Drosophila melanogaster. (February)

The Degree of Master of Arts

In Chemistry

Gerald Robert Brown, A.B., Illinois College, 1933 (August)

In Classics

Bernadine Marie Flanagan, B.Ed., Illinois State Normal University, 1935 (October)

Wayne Ellis Hammerlund, A.B., 1938 (February)

Martha Alberta Montgomery, B.S., 1937 (October)

Carmen Louise Parr, A.B., 1934 (February)

In Economics

Robert Carter Lamar, A.B., James Millikin University, 1934 (October)

In Education

June Rachel Barnes, A.B., DePauw University, 1933 (October)

Harry Greig Baxter, B.Ed., Western Illinois State Teachers College, 1936 (October)

Harlan Dennett Beem, A.B., DePauw University, 1928 (October)

Ralph Manfrid Bengston, A.B., Augustana College, 1924 (August)

Alvar Tyko Berghult, A.B., Augustana College, 1934 (October)

Leo Henry Berns, B.Ed., Eastern Illinois State Teachers College, 1937 (August)

Dorothy Ann Bratton, A.B., 1930 (August)

Goldamae Brooks, B.Ed., Southern Illinois State Normal University, 1931 (August)

Marion Edgar Burks, B.S., Murray State Teachers College, 1935 (October)

Mason Forrest Campbell, A.B., Illinois Wesleyan University, 1930 (August)

Garnet Elizabeth Carder, B.Ed., Illinois State Normal University, 1935 (October)

Irma Carolan, B.Ed., Western Illinois State Teachers College, 1935 (October)

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

Oh say! can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say, does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

COLLEGES AND SCHOOLS AT URBANA-CHAMPAIGN

GEORGE HUFF GYMNASIUM
9:30 A.M. MONDAY
JUNE 7, 1943

The Star-Spangled Banner

Oh say! can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say, does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Auld Lang Syne

Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to mind?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And days of auld lang syne?

For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne;
We'll take a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne.

Commencement Program

For Candidates for February Degrees

University Auditorium, Urbana, Illinois
Three o'clock, Sunday Afternoon
February 6, 1944

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

Oh say! can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say, does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

AULD LANG SYNE

Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to mind?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And days of auld lang syne?

For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne;
We'll take a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne.

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh! say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming.
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh! say does the star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

AULD LANG SYNE

Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to mind?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And days of auld lang syne?

For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne;
We'll take a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne.

Commencement Program

THE LIBRARY OF THE
JUN 3 1945
UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

Huff Gymnasium, Urbana, Illinois
Three o'clock, Sunday Afternoon
June 3, 1945

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh! say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming.
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh! say does the star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

AULD LANG SYNE

Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to mind?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And days of auld lang syne?

For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne;
We'll take a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne.

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh! say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming.
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh! say does the star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

AULD LANG SYNE

Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to mind?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And days of auld lang syne?

For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne;
We'll take a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne.

An informal reception for the candidates and their parents and friends will be given by President and Mrs. Willard in the Main Lounge of the Illini Union Building immediately following these exercises.

The following lists include candidates for degrees who are completing requirements at the close of the summer term of 1945.

Subject to final completion of the requirements for graduation, degrees will be conferred as indicated on candidates whose names are listed and on others whose names may not be included.

Graduation with honors has not been indicated for any candidate because records can not be completed at this time. Honors, however, will be indicated on the diplomas of those achieving this distinction.
